The Bride is Being Prepared

November 2, 2021

Blessed Mother, help us to prepare ourselves to be the Bride of Christ by becoming His over comers, who grow until we are matured and perfected in the divine life, and He will fill us with His Spirit as we continue to empty ourselves. Amen.

Mother Mary began, "Thank you for obeying."

"Thank you for disposing my heart to obey," Mother Clare responded. "I know I need a lot of transformation to be His Bride."-- --

"There are last minute mercies, or none would be taken."-- --

"But the way I interpret it as we are a long ways from being without spot, wrinkle or blemish."

Blessed Mother continued, "How true that is, but oh how faithful His mercy is as well. That is not to encourage you to take liberties, Clare do your very best to be perfect. After all--the graces He has endowed you with, perfection should be your response. And you are improving.-- --

"These days that you are living in are the calm before the storm, the very great storm. There will be a skeleton left to take care of the internet, etc. But things will be reorganized vastly differently. Electronic communication will become even more necessary.-- --

"The Bride is being prepared right now. Beloved ones, do not resist the chiseling away of your carnal natures. As God forms you, He will remove those things that are no longer relevant in your life. Let them go. Don't struggle, just let go. These are the finishing touches to your garments.

"It will be much less painful for you if you spend more trysting time with Him. Be glad that He is pruning you to come forth like fire tried gold."

"I am so concerned for Mother Elisabeth."-- --

"She will do well with her trial and come through in flying colors. Your prayers are needed, your caring heart is especially needed.-- --

"Work as though there is no Rapture on the horizon and you will be found in His perfect will in that hour. Thank you for the offering. Like I said, He is removing those things that are no longer needed. Your correspondence opens the door for more grace and cuts away at those things that consume your time, but have no bearing on the salvation of souls. Besides, you are an example whether you like it or not.

"The goats will bring new life to the community that actually is really needed. Caring for animals makes you more aware of God's care for you, beloved. This will be a good addition to the community and be fun besides. Your opponents are getting weary but are in no way giving up. The stakes are too high. You being here with Holy Souls really interrupts the flow of wickedness. Yes there is a magnetic dimension to this, always. Magnetism works in all things, though you cannot see or understand it. But truly you are a major interruption and that is why they are going through great lengths to get rid of you.

"I want to love Him in a way that such things as tasty food plays no importance in my life. As you can see, I am way far away from that."

"Most of you are but there is great hope. Do not give in to discouragement, sometimes He uses that to pull your self-esteem into alignment with reality."

"Mother, what do you want to discuss with us?"-- -- --

"Mostly, your faithfulness to prayer. Some of you are getting the prayer you need and others are not. The lives of so many hinge on your sacrifice and faithfulness to prayer. Some of you try but are distracted, others succeed in going deeper. There are great gifts in store for those who intercede with their whole hearts. It is my desire to see ALL of you succeeding in deep prayer and worship. Do not let the urgencies of the moment stop your prayers. If you must stop for a moment, it's okay, but come right back. Do not let the enemy make that the very thing that derails your morning of prayer. At night I also need your prayers. Be faithful children, be faithful. Don't you feel so much better when you are. Ask for my help to keep you on track."

Making Community Work

Lord, grant us the patience to work together and unite us as a family. Let us work with understanding, love and compassion in our hearts, as we light the way to Your heavenly kingdom. Amen.

Mother Mary began speaking, "Solidarity, this is where your strength lies. You are all on the same page. And it is best to make it voluntary, so that hearts are totally united and on the same page. This is where most communities and groups go wrong. They do not have solidarity. Because you have chosen the less glorious ways of proceeding, only the authentic ones are interested. They want to be here for the right reasons.

"As you continue to hold together, you will be stronger. What you have done right is to encourage each soul in their gifts and give them what they need to accomplish it. If you can conquer your own carnal natures, you have built a wall of solidarity around yourselves.-- --

"When a soul is not going to work out it will become blaringly obvious. This is when you need to take action, before they bring other souls down. Growing a community is like growing a beautiful and richly, healthy garden. You do much to take the stones from the earth, amend the soil with nutrients and remove sprouting weeds, aerate and keep the soil light and well-watered, you will have a rich, productive garden, that is what this place is becoming.-- --

"It is essential that each person have real trysting time with Jesus. There must be a connection and knowledge of my Son or they will not understand the dynamics of community life and the attributes necessary to succeed. Everything, and I do mean everything, depends upon an ever-deepening intimacy with Him.

"My dear ones, when you have conquered your personal sins, and when I say conquered I don't mean completely eradicated, I mean when you recognize your sins and are actively keeping a watch over yourself and mending your ways, you are ready to live in community. It's not about making smooth transitions, it is about yielding increasingly to one another in brotherly love.

"It is for this reason that those who oppose you, aim at the individuals and even at the weakest. By gaining entry into the weakest, they can be used to cause division and division is the beginning of real trouble. But with mature members who know better and have seen the enemy at work, they spot these weaknesses and work with the individual even interceding for them. No rancor, no criticism, no condemnation, only prayer and kindliness until the soul comes around. This is a successful way of building up the community."

The Harvest is Ripe

Dear Lord, we pray to see Your vision at work in our world, healing our brokenness and making us new. Grant us the wisdom to clearly hear Your voice through the darkness and grant us the courage to be Your faithful witnesses by sharing Your love with others. Amen.

"I can still speak with you." Blessed Mother smiled sweetly. "The harvest field is ripe, but where are the harvesters? It is going to be time to go out and proclaim the good news. The Lord will get their attention and you will bring them the answers. He is with you Clare and He wants to use you to speak to the people, not only on the channel but also in person. Are you willing child?"

"Mother if you say so, I know you will give me the strength and the words."-- --

"Holy Spirit will give you the words and speak through you. I just want you to be willing to bring them the good news. Also, the conspiracy theories they have used to lie to them will now become reality and that will be very confusing to so many."-- --

"Wow, I never saw myself as someone going out and speaking."

"That has not been in your mirror or your agenda, but it has been His, all along. So, now is the time. How do you feel about rotten cabbages?"

"What a gift."

"And there shall be many such gifts. Just wait, don't get carried away, but don't be surprised, rather, be ready. Would you like the fire?"

"Absolutely!"

"Then get ready for it. Purify your motives and intentions, let there be nothing of the world or yourself involved in this. Actually, this will come quite naturally to you, as you will see. Hearts will be ready to receive Clare. Don't worry about Papa, we are taking excellent care of him and will guard him. But you are to go out and proclaim the good news, we will be with you."

"Wow!! I would love to do this, really love to do this."

Mother Mary continued, "You will take several with you to lead them to the Lord and give them packages to follow up."-- --

"That could be hard."

"I will help you. People He loves you, He is doing this to get your attention. Do you understand??? He has put these wonders in the sky to bring you out of a deep, sinful sleep."

Mother Clare responded, "I'm going to get proud, you'd better use someone else."

"No my child, it is your turn to warn the people with all the love you can muster. Don't worry--we will take care of the pride and vainglory. You know you are nothing without His grace...how could you allow yourself to be talked into something so very ugly?? We will be with you in a mighty way. Prepare for miracles. They too will be necessary to wake up the sleepers. Love is the motivation, He loves them, the ones who dabble and consort in witchcraft, and the ones who are so beaten down by life, they have no self-esteem or desire to be and do anything.-- --

"You know what that feels like and you know how to rouse them with a good word. This is your time to awaken the lowly and the outcast, to love them with all His heart. They are hungry and they need this, the signs will open their minds and hearts to the truth. If you truly love them, you will do this. The more you are persecuted, the louder your voice, and the more lasting His message. You can do this."

People are Crying Out for Love & Answers

November 4, 2021

Lord, you call us to Your service and continue Your saving work among us. Grant us a servant's heart God, so that we may serve You by serving others. Amen.

Blessed Mother began, "It is important that my children ask me to pray with them, many times they are all alone, but when they invite me they invite Heaven and earth into their sweet presence. And yes, do invite the angels and saints as well. My children, this is a truth most will not even consider, but--you my little ones are willing to receive this grace my heart longs to give you.

"Prayer is so totally important, as it moves mountains and stops wildfires, but prayer done with a group of souls who really care makes the difference. I would like you all to teach others about this secret of getting your prayers multiplied by inviting others into your midst. This can involve the angels, saints and even those suffering purgation. As they join their prayers to yours, they come closer and closer to the day of their liberation.

"You see, so many are in Purgatory because they do not serve others. Their lives are all about them, and they are accustomed to excluding the poor and needy around them. You know all about the story of Hell, everyone sitting at a long banquet table together. There is ample food on the table, and forks are passed out to everyone. The problem is the forks are two feet long and they cannot feed themselves with them, only others. Because they all refuse to do so, they go hungry.-- --

"This is an unprecedented time for all of you to increase your selfless service and giving. The world cries out for this and this is where they will find Jesus. My children, let your light shine so brightly before men that they give praise to your God and come to you searching and hungry.-- --

"People are searching Clare. Soon they will be wringing their hands and crying out for answers from God. This is where you come in. You have always wanted to be there for those who were truly needy, very soon this wish will be fulfilled. It will not be as difficult as in previous times because their reality, that has been so common to them will be disintegrating around them.

"What greater service could you give to mankind? There simply is none. Nor is there anything that eclipses the gift of eternal life. So, you see you could accomplish much for the salvation of souls during these times. These people do not have a clue who Jesus is. They think of God as vengeful and critical, ready to send them to hell for their sins. Everything is also distorted by the cruelty of fathers to their children. The Satanic Ritual Abuse is horrific, and they see that as the only way to escape this evil.

"That is why these children need a loving mother to show them the ways of God. Trust me Clare, they do not know Him, if they did, they would be searching for Him in a relationship. And some have, but just like you they became social outcasts, not having a clue of how much they are loved. This love has been given to you so that you can share it with the poor and outcast. I will accompany you if you will ask."

"Most assuredly Blessed Mother, I will not go alone. Thank you."

"Thank you for heeding the call, so many are crying out. Help them, please help them dear ones."

Jesus Speaks About Our Channel

November 4, 2021

May the Holy Spirit guide you dear ones, that you may discover the fullness and richness of the faith and be forever united in Jesus arms. Amen

Dear family, if you are new to our channel, I highly recommend you come in on the ground level so you can receive the very first teachings the Lord gave us. In the beginning, He began with the problems of the current day church, this series was called "Wounded Waters "because a church should be a place of healing, yet the world has taken over much of the pure spirituality of the early church, which is what we are all about, especially the early church at Philadelphia.

The Lord began by teaching us discernment and how to connect with Him in an intimate but pure relationship, where our hearts become one with His. We call ourselves Heart Dwellers because we have bypassed the denominational barriers and wish only to live a life of love from His Heart according to what He gave us in His life and left behind in the Scriptures.

He also took us through a long Honeymoon, dancing, romancing and even being taken to Heaven to visit the special place He has prepared for us. I currently have a book out called Chronicles of the Bride that gives a little slice and cross section of what that was like. During the time of these messages there was a deep bonding and discovery of how sweet and loving our Jesus is. He did so many wonderful things with us and taught us so much about His total dedication and love for us. The details of the things that He does amaze me sometimes because he knows us so well, He produces little gifts that are just so perfect that only He could know about. This was also the season when we believed the church was going to be Raptured back in two 15 and 16.

Then He came to us with an extension of five years. I received much ridicule for this and lost some of my You Tube audience. However, it was His mercy that gave us those five more years to gather in more souls for the Rapture. Then He came again and gave us more time, and I cannot remember how much time that was, but during that period, He began to ask us to leave the honeymoon chamber and enter the battle for souls on Earth.

He also taught us about the healing power of the Lord's Supper just as it was practiced in the early church, and how the Holy Spirit transforms the wafer of bread into the true Body and Blood of Jesus, under the appearance of wine and bread, along with many attesting miracles. These things have been lost to much of the modern church, and the sustaining power of His Body and Blood is what makes all the difference in a Christian who wants more, wants to go deeper, wants to be completely united with Him. He has asked me to bring back the gifts we were given in the first century, which Satan has twisted and maligned to be evil. In that period, I shared with you how the Lord brought me out of the world to belong only to Him, something I struggled with for seven years in the Evangelical body of believers but just could not attain to.

After we had been together for many, many years, He began to introduce us to the Great Cloud of Witnesses and their function in these end times to assist with the harvesters, which united Heaven and Earth into One Body with One Head. Then He brought to us some of the members of the Great Cloud and explained that their function in Heaven was to pray for us on Earth and even appear at times and give us instruction.

So, you see, this channel has been through many seasons to help round out those who have been with us from the beginning. Now, new people are visiting us, and they do not know the background teachings leading up to this time, so they are at a loss to understand things like Dwelling Prayer and the necessity of it, as well as the functionality of the Great Cloud of Witnesses, and how important those relationships are.

The Lord also spent a great deal of time on discernment. Teaching about the pitfalls that happen because people just do not know their weaknesses. So, He taught us about ourselves and how Satan manipulates us into chasing fantasies and living lies. Everyone who is new to the channel should listen to all the teachings on discernment, it is foundational for understanding and something without which we cannot live. You are not here to follow me; you are here to follow the Lord and stand on your own two feet. -

On Vimeo, - we were on You Tube originally and then we were kicked off- On Vimeo we have many playlists organized by topic and you can go back to those, but we do not have current messages there. I encourage you to go to Still Small Voice on Vimeo, and go through these early teachings, by subject matter. You can also go to our web site Heartdwellers.org and find teachings there, but they are not organized by subject, they are grouped by date, which could be a plus for you in a unique way. On this site there is also a search engine that will help you find things by subject.

And last but by no means least, we have a Rhema page with over a thousand words from Scriptures, and great saints down through the ages. It also has a button for random message rhema's. It is organized in a random matter, so it is good to pray ask for Holy spirit to lead you and then click the button to receive a relevant word from the Holy Spirit. It really works, guys!

You will also find links to our music and other channels in the description box.

Lord Jesus, do you have anything to add? I was not going to ask you, but I felt you might.

Jesus began, "Thank you so much for thinking of Me. As a matter of fact, I do have something I want to speak to you. I have brought this channel forth to unite the factions of My Church. There are no denominations in Heaven, because in Heaven your understanding is complete and without doctrinal flaws. I am weary with those who are constantly finding fault with this Christian and that Christian ad infinitum. I want you all to lay down the swords in your mouth and embrace one another as I embraced the lepers.

"You see, when you back bite, criticize and find fault with other Christian's beliefs, you grieve Me deeply. Partly because most of you have errors in your own thinking, that have been passed down to you from previous pastors who also had errors. And I am all about the truth, and I promise you, in Heaven you will surely have the whole truth. In the meantime, I want all of you to put down your swords and embrace your brothers and sisters in brotherly love. I am not saying ignore serious error, but I am saying that your version of the truth and Mine are most likely different, and humility is needed in dealing with My Body. All of you have an error somewhere, and all of you have a truth somewhere, so be humble.

"I want to see you loving one another, even as I loved you. I want to see the humility that says, "I may be missing a few pieces to this puzzle." then calling upon the Holy Spirit to correct your errors and teach you meekness, that others most probably have more of the truth than you do. Do not be so sure of yourselves, be willing to recognize error in your faith, because what is commonly being taught now is full of error. Embrace what is good and sound and do not squabble over different viewpoints of the Scriptures. The Scriptures are correct and without error, but your interpretation may not be. Only the working of My Holy Spirit can untangle meanings, so be open to correction on things that you have long thought to be the absolute truth.

"I want My Body to function as a whole, and what holds you together is your love for one another. What separates, kills and divides are those souls who think they have the corner on truth and spend all their time pointing out errors in everyone else, while they are committing the biggest error of all, scattering the sheep, and throwing them into confusion, teaching them the ways of the Pharisees, not My ways.

"On this channel I begin by pointing out the things that have hurt you in your experiences with the churches. It is not about denomination; it is about brotherly love. The errors and wounds committed against you came from a lack of love for one another. Then I proceed to teach you about yourselves and the ways in which Satan pulls the blinders down over your eyes. I teach you about you so that you can recognize how you are being manipulated. I show you ways to get confirmations outside of yourself using holy books and being aware of signs I send you to confirm the truth or discredit error.

"I teach you how to recognize false prophets and divisive teachings that are rampant in the church today. I teach you how to hear from Me, and know it is Me. The whole purpose of this channel is to bring the flock together in brotherly love and to learn how to recognize truth and adhere to it. This is not a prophetic channel that is constantly feeding you juicy tidbits, rather it is a channel to teach you how to get your own tidbits, how to discern your own directions, how to see and understand the toxic ways of the world, and how to break free from them.

"You will find things on this channel that challenge the Pharisee in you. But you will also notice that in the beginning I taught you how to recognize error in a vessel, then I introduced you to the things of the early church that have been lost to you by the clever arguments of devils. I expect you to be able to discern these things on your own when I introduced them, because they were so controversial. I waited until you trusted this vessel and have been taught how to discern before I handed you a tangled mess to discern. Here I am talking about the intercession of My saints and My Body and Blood, which is truly present in the bread and wine.

"These doctrines have been mangled and mishandled by those who did not go deeper, rather they accepted the denominational norm as their safety zone and stuck to it. There are those who suspect the truth but will go no further lest they lose their ministry. But I am telling you this vessel wandered around in the darkness for a long part of her life, and when she found the light, she did not stop there, she followed Me into the taboos of modern Christian doctrine, and she found the truth buried beneath hundreds of years of error and lies. I led her there so that she could bring it forth to you.

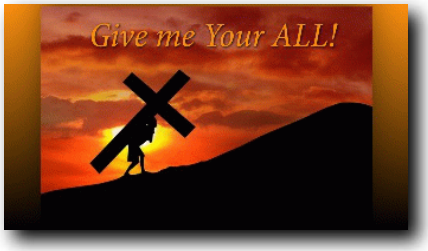
"So, if you are new to this channel, you may not have the groundwork from which to discern truth from error and you may want to go back to the early teachings I gave her to understand truth even when it goes against your cultural norms.

"My People, you are so beautiful to Me, each and every one of you, I long to give you the fullness of My teachings as they were revealed to My Apostles through the working of the Holy Spirit through them so they could be fully equipped. This is what I long for you to have. So, I ask you, ask My Holy Spirit to guide you, and set aside the norms of your denominations and popular thinking. Set aside also, the work of the devil in every denomination and learn to stand against nay-sayers and persecution for what you have learned.

"I love you tenderly and I have many wonders yet to do in your lives, not the least of which is the pure and intimate relationship that will blossom between us as you go deeper into your faith and dwell with Me in My Heart, as I dwell with you in your heart. Come to Me unafraid and ask Me what you will. I will lead you in the right paths, for you are dear to me."

Please Give ME Your ALL

November 6, 2021



May the Peace of the Lord keep us flexible in His will until the very moment, He says, "Come up hither." Amen.

Today I sought the Lord about delay in Rapture timing...again. On again off again...how long will this go on? I ask myself. The Lord cut in on my thoughts.

Jesus began, "Clare, have My heart for sinners. It is not My heart to see thousands swept away into Hell. Understand, beloved, I love these souls, I see what they could be. My heart is to save them. But it is true, at some point I must let go. This is so painful for Me. Imagine having to let go of your children, knowing their fate to be eternal damnation and separation from you."

Lord, I cannot.

"This is true, you cannot. Neither can I and that is why it is so difficult for Me when things must be finalized, and they are gone forever. I cannot bear the thought of losing one let alone many. Try to understand Beloved and give until it hurts. This will be such a comfort for Me."

Lord, please uphold me so I do not collapse.

He replied, "I am doing that."

You said any minute, on the Rapture, is that changed? You told me a few months ago that this would not be a drill, this was the real deal. Was I hearing you or was I hearing something else?

Jesus continued, "The delay is very slight, and this requires patient endurance on your parts. It is very slight; it is not a major shift in time as you have had before."

What can I do for You, Lord?

Mary began, "Love Him unconditionally, without the condition of being delivered from pain. Love Him no matter what Clare. Completely abandon your life into His hands, let Him have this little extra time and do all in your power to help. This is what love looks like, complete abandonment to the will of the Beloved, no matter what the cost."

I want to be there Mother, with a cheerful heart, not with grumbling.

"I think it is a good idea to explain this slight delay to the channel. In this moment, the Father is holding the destiny of millions in His hands. If we can save but one soul for Him, then, let us do it. He is sustaining you, and He will continue to until the Father gives the sign for the trumpets to blow and for His Son to come back to intercept His Bride."

I need more faith, Blessed Mother.

Mary answered me, "I know, continue to obey, do not lose hope, and it shall be yours. These are true tests of your love for Him, but you see how He is upholding you and giving you His work to do. He is equipping you and sending you out in this interim before the Rapture. Only the Father knows when this interim will end. It is best for you to resign yourself to a bit of a wait and do all you can to bring the harvest in.

"These are exciting times you are living in and when there are delays it is because extraordinary prayer was offered to save sinners. There are incredible allowances being made for the unsaved. It is like nothing that has ever been done before. There is so much to lose, that the Father is extending His compassion to His Son.

"You will see how things unfold in the coming days. Much has been mitigated by prayer intervention, but still much is to come that will be the fulfillment of Scripture.

"Have courage daughter, it will be at a time you least expect it. That is what He has said, and it will be done that way. I do not have the keys to this mystery, I only know that our God is a God of His word, fulfilled.

"Tell your people not to slack off on their work. Tell them to make every moment count, as I tell you to do so as well. Make every moment count for the kingdom of God. Be found doing His will in faithfulness. More graces are coming as they are needed. Do not grow sad, realize you are living in the most exciting times in the Bible. Make the best of it. Keep working, keep watching…and I will keep helping. We will not abandon you or leave you on your own."

I was grateful for this encouragement, as I was remembering how Ezekiel just last week had seen two angels with trumpets to their mouths, flying by his window. And the following story corroborates it.

Now you have heard this story before in another message, but for those who have not, I wanted to include it.

Last week a pastor was on a trip driving his car and saw an elderly man walking on the road and decided to get him in the car. While they were traveling the old man said to the pastor, "Son do you know what happened last night in heaven?"

The pastor got scared and suddenly stopped the car and asked, "Sir are you okay? How did you get information from heaven?"

The old man continued, "Last night in heaven God was incredibly angry against man and told the angels to blow the trumpet. The angels raised the trumpet and when they were going to start blowing, Jesus fell before Father God. He began to plead with tears in his eyes, then fresh blood came, it began to come out of his hands and body. Christ told God to have mercy so that His death was not in vain. God saw the wounds of his Son and saw the pain of His saints and the wickedness of the wicked, and He said, "I will give you a last opportunity."

Jesus turned to the angels and commanded them to hurry. Large numbers of angels from all over the world were sent to go tell the world that the end is near, and that Jesus was coming soon. The pastor wiped his tears and asked, "Sir how do you know all this?" The old man replied, "I am one of those angels that was sent to the world." Then he said to the pastor, "Please use all the media and send this message, there is no time to lose "and then the old man disappeared.

Right after I had read this story, Jesus began speaking.

Jesus began, "My people, do not sit back and wait for the trumpet to blow. Please get busy for Me. You must be found busy about My business, that is another thing that qualifies you for the Rapture. In the past you wrapped everything up and just stood there in Limbo, until you got the word that it had been delayed.

"Well now I am giving you another word, this is but a slight delay, this is not for years and years, we are at the end now and it will happen any day. You must be busy working for souls because it is My heart that aches for them, and if you love Me, you will ache as well and truly apply yourself at these last moments. Please do not let Me down. Give it your all, I am counting on you. Of all the times throughout history, when your prayers have been needed this is far and away more urgent than any other time in history.

"Remember back when you were saved. Remember how lost you were, how dark it was, how utterly empty you felt and there was a longing for some kind of comfort and the answer to your life's deepest questions. Remember how you searched other faiths and meditation and other spiritual practices to find meaning to your life. Now, picture for just a moment that I am standing before you, but you do not see Me. I am longing to touch you with the truth, but I so badly need a vessel to bring the subject to you in a way you can really receive and comprehend.

"There are millions of precious people out there with the same dilemma right now, and I want to speak to them. Will you help Me for just this very short while? The time is unspecified, but it is nothing like the five years you had in 2016. It is terminated in My Father's mind, but He is holding back for My sake because He knows how much it means to Me.

"So please, my comforting Bride, get busy, deliver the truth to anyone who will hear you. Tell them the truth and open the way for Me. Pray for those who have no idea what is about to hit the Earth and even if they did, it would not be useful without this teaching.

"I leave you now, sweet Clare, rest and get up tomorrow with renewed vigor and resolve to make these last minutes count for the One you love with all your heart. I am feeding you with My love and stamina, yes, you can feel it even now at 2:30 in the morning. Yes, it was Me who gave you the inspiration to check one more message and set it up for recording. That was Me, now you have written for Me all I wished to say, so now I ask you to give Me the very last drops of your life for the love of God and your brother. How proud I am that you have done this message. How edified I am by your perseverance. Thank you, my sweet Dove, come now and rest in My arms."

And that was the end of His message.

And I just wanted to mention to you that we have a website with a search engine where you can search by subject, we also have a Rhema pool with over a thousand Rhemas in it which you can click on for a word from the Lord. Pray first, and then click on the Rhema button and, we have messages, over I think fifteen or sixteen hundred messages that are also in a random pool, you can click on that, and they will come up, a message just for you. That helps a lot because it brings up some of the older messages.

And I want to thank you guys for supporting us. Thank you so much! We have some incredibly happy people in the Mesa where they are impoverished. We bought wood for them because of your kindness and thank you so much, they are thrilled to have wood to heat their homes. Most of them heat with sage brush, can you believe that? In any case, it is your kindness that is keeping them warm this winter.

God bless you, dear family.

Make Prayer Personal

November 9, 2021

Lord, please open our eyes and let us see those around us that are in need of our compassion. Compel us to listen to them, to hear their needs and give us the heart to be interested in their troubles and provide for us the means to help them. Amen.

Mother Mary began, "Prayer can become so impersonal, it is a good practice to put your very own relatives in the place of those who are at risk, to help you be more personally involved. In each place where tragedy takes place there are people similar to your family members who you love. In this way it becomes far more personal for you. Not only that, but because you prayed for those you do not know, the Lord will cover your interests.

"When you practice this kind of compassion, you become more like Jesus. That is why mercy and compassion are so important for you. Without it prayers become rote and dry, not touching the heart of the matter.

"All over the world people are languishing and wondering if this is the end. Their sense of insecurity is so strong it interferes with their living from day to day. You have hope to offer them, with a sure knowledge of how much they are loved in spite of their imperfections. The effect of these messages is peace and hope, that is why we continue to give them to you Clare, they truly reach those who are suffering and afraid. I am here Clare."

"Thank you Mother, I am a bit spacey."

"I understand, the binding prayer would have helped with that. But here we are just as it is so let's make the very best of it. If I could speak the very heart of the matter, it is to convince souls how much they are loved by their God. He intercedes without a break day and night. When He comes before the Father, He is painfully aware of who has yet to be saved and how necessary the harvesters are. That is why He is encouraging you to make the next step to the mesa.-- --

"Clare, there are many lost souls there who have sought the truth but felt at such a loss for not finding it. When they do find it, they will be truly born again and ready to live this new life."-- -- --

I heard the Lord's voice, "They are also unique souls some of whom the world is not worthy of. They will recognize truth and be open to miracles and healings of all sorts. Where your faith is lacking, Mine is filling in because I want them to experience My Love and Power. Some have demonic infestations and will require prayer and fasting to be released. I will be with you Clare, even though in this moment you are struggling to hear Me, I am speaking to you and telling you, there will be miracles."

"Lord, when do you want us to begin?"

"You will know, there will be an eagerness."-- --

After He said this, I heard, "A great sign appeared in Heaven" in the background.

"Clare."

"Yes Lord?"

"Please relax I will bring it together quite easily. You worry too much, that's not your job, your job is to believe."

Put Jesus Interests First

November 9, 2021

Lord, today we choose to put You first. We acknowledge that without You, we can do nothing. We invite You to have Your way in our lives, as we seek You first in all that we do. Amen.

Mary Mother began speaking, "The heart, it is the heart that matters. Your hearts must be pure dear ones. If there is anything of the world that has your attention, you have lost graces from the Lord. In this world you will have great tribulation, that is a given, it is what you do with it that makes the difference. You can cave in and feel sorry that you haven't changed anything, or you can grasp the situation with faith in the Lord and see how He handles it. There are so many things that need prayer beloved ones, but few are those to comfort them. Always strive to be a comfort to the poor and impoverished. As you pour out on others, the Lord will refill you and then some.

"He, the devil, is wanting to discourage all those who would rise to holiness. This is a dangerous endeavor, fraught with many pitfalls, not least of which is vanity, wanting to appear holy, when indeed you know better. Clare don't worry about that, be who you are and scrap other demands that lead you astray into vanity. The beauty of what God has begun with you is its simplicity and nothingness in the eyes of the world. That is why I want you to continue to carry on in a wise, yet gentle way. Never worry about impressing anyone, rather worry about pleasing my Son.

"Those who do not look over their shoulders to see who is watching them are truly blessed indeed, rather they contemplate with the eyes of their hearts, the Heart of Jesus and what is most pleasing to Him. All of you are moving in that direction, but I am asking you to do it manfully, that is putting the Lord before you at all times. Things will come and go from the world, but your gaze should be steadily on your Savior and His needs.-- --

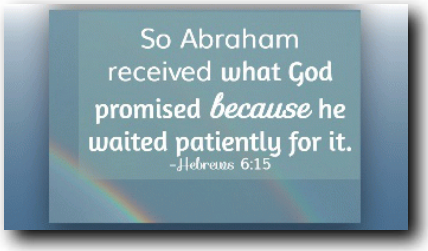
"My children, make a habit of putting Him ahead of you at every moment, thinking always about His best interests. As you live your life this way, you will come to this last moment knowing you have sought nothing but His Holy Will.

"Do not be like the man who makes plans for dinner while he is walking to the gallows. Live mindfully, always putting Jesus ahead of your desires. If you make a habit of doing that, your path though full of thorns will smell sweet with roses strewn upon the path, because you are walking the path of humility and total dedication to your Savior, be assured He will meet you on the way.

"Children, call upon me to assist you to accomplish this every day, it is His will for you and the grace is being extended to you. Cherish it."

If The Vision Tarries

November 10, 2021



Dear Lord, help us to be patient with great understanding. We ask to reflect You in all ways and that Your peace and understanding will govern our behavior. Let patience have its way within our hearts and Your understanding shape us so that we can reach out and understand those who need you. Amen.

Mary had faith that what God promised her would come to pass.

Mother Mary began, "There is a great deal of prayer over the years for this community to be birthed. You were not aware of it, but everything you suffered both here and in town was applied to this cause.

"My Children, there are so many promises that you have been given in your lives that you are at this time nourishing by your day to day living and trials. All good things come to those who wait. Many are waiting for the time of their visitation and the fulfillment of their promises, yet some have given up and no longer believe that it will come to pass. Some of you feel this way because it is taking so very long. Some have given up thinking they didn't hear correctly. Others are trying to bring the vision to pass before its time and you are very frustrated.

"I want to say to you, wait faithfully. Nourish your faith. What the Lord told to you will come to pass in His timing and His way. This is one of the hardest things for the souls of earth to understand. They want it video game quick. God's plans proceed slowly, yet when you think nothing is being done, you are actually mining the gold that will be used to support the vision.-- --

"Clare and Ezekiel thought at one point that perhaps they had not heard the Lord, and they put it on the shelf with other seemingly impossible things. But here they are today with the community Jesus promised them. It took a great deal of preparation, really, 40 years, since at that time she knew that the Lord was going to raise up a Franciscan community with her mothering them.

"The vision was set into the deep shadows of the times to come, not knowing when or how and suspecting it was not Jesus but a familiar spirit. In all truth, it was indeed My Son who had spoken to her and He brought it about so simply at a time she never suspected.

"I am telling you this dear children because many of you are grieving over promises not yet realized. I want to say to you, hold on to the vision, if it tarries, wait for it. God indeed writes straight with crooked lines and you may not understand why, but you don't need to understand, you need to trust even as I had to trust these things to come about.

"The answer to your insecurities is to be faithful to the letter of what He asks of you each day and one day you will find yourselves on the shores of your destiny with everything coming together underneath you with barely any effort. Remember you do not die and lose your calling. Your calling can also be fulfilled in the next world. But you must hide these things in your hearts until they come to fruition. This goes for prophecies spoken over you as well. Of course, test the spirits, but once you have determined that this is indeed a promise, hide it in your heart and be faithful to all the duties of the moment that God has set before you for that day. He writes straight with crooked lines and you are under instruction and formation for the promise to come true.

"Do not grow impatient as some do, rather lock these up tightly in your heart and allow Him to nourish the visions and give you experiences that seem to make no sense but are part of His plan to prepare you. Be faithful to the present moment and you will arrive on the shores of your destiny. Do as I did, tuck them away in your heart and nourish them as something that will indeed come to pass at the proper time."

Jesus Talks About His Messengers

November 10, 2021

May the Lord bring peace and clarity to your heart's precious family. Amen.-- --

Jesus put it on my heart again tonight to encourage you to discern more deeply and not reject vessels that your church doctrine rejected, but rather to exercise real discernment and not take a man's word for it.

Jesus began, "My People, I want you to put away your prejudices and read the messages where My Mother and I both speak. I want you to learn a deeper level of discernment. My sheep hear My voice whether it be through a common woman like Mother Clare, or My Mother."

Jesus continued, "Dear family, it is time you go deeper in your discernment and learn to hear Me through any vessel. You should have the deep inner ability to know the difference between My voice and the voice of an imposter. You will never find My Mother doing or saying anything against Scripture. Rather you will find her reinforcing everything I ever said.-- --

"You have trusted this vessel for many years, it is time for you to embrace My words even if they are spoken from a messenger from Heaven. Look at the fruit. Examine the fruit and see if it is good. A bad tree cannot produce good fruit.

You will learn that there is a quicker way to My heart, and that way is the same way I came to you, through Mary. By her intercession you will grow in self-knowledge and willing sacrifice. You will learn the secret ways of love and how to melt My heart.

"Or you can continue on with a dry sterile relationship, cowering in fear from the angels and saints in Heaven, taking the safe route just like the young Pharisee in the Chosen series. The scene I am referring to was the one in which he stood looking in the window demanding to know by whose authority Jesus was teaching. Recall--also, the scene before that when Nicodemus compared his narrow vision to that of the Sadducees who refused to believe in anything past the first five books of the Bible. To them, the Psalms, Proverbs, Isaiah and Jeremiah were not valid or worth studying.-- --

"My people, you must learn to discern from the heart and the fruit, or you will be led astray by what has been planned for you. Read between the lines, cleave to the Scriptures and ask Holy Spirit to reveal the truth to you. Finally, a tree is known by its fruit. You will never find bad fruit coming from My Mother's tree.

"On the contrary, you will find those who enlist her prayers, to be more gentle, genuine, tender and giving, and best of all you will find they are deeply intimate with Me, true Brides, deeply in love. This is the kind of fruit that comes from her tree."

Mother Clare wanted to add, "It would be good for you to study the messages on discernment and how to tell the difference between the Spirit of God and the spirit of the evil ones, and how they misguide you. On our website HeartDwellers.org, use the search engine and it will bring up all the messages that teach discernment." God bless you dear Heart Dwellers.

Holy Spirit Works With Us

November 14, 2021

Mother Clare began, "Today, Dear Family, we had a Rosary and Requiem Mass for those slain on Halloween, and it was very deep. The souls present, all wanted to be there and all prayed from the heart and you could really feel it. Afterwards we shared some of the experiences they had when interceding for the innocent victims, but I didn't have anything to share. I was very proud of them because I could see them getting closer to the Lord. But lately I've felt some difficulty in getting close to Him and I wondered if I had done something to cause that. To be honest with you dear ones, I know I have fallen short in some areas and if I were the Lord, I would distance myself a bit from one like myself. But Our Lady knew how I was feeling and she immediately brought it up. And if she sounds just like Jesus, that's because she is totally united to Him."

Blessed Mother began, "Your family is growing, maturing and bringing forth fruit. Do not be sad that they have something to share when you don't. This is by God's design, both for your humility and to let each one come into their own in the community and shine. They are beautiful souls Clare, your children, born from your marriage to Ezekiel and that each of you are united to--Jesus. It is only right that they should increase and you should decrease. But I don't want you to feel as though He has rejected you. That is not the case at all. He is just bringing forth the joy of seeing your children mature and stand on their own. How beautiful it is that they are coming into their own."

"Yes Mother, I am so very grateful for this, and I know it is the Lord's doing. I have just been there for our family, sharing what He has given me, and He in turn, has given the increase for them to rise to fulfill their stature. I am thrilled with them. Thank You Holy Spirit for feeding them and giving the increase to their beautiful souls. Oh, thank you SO much!"

Holy Spirit began, "Little Clare, is it such a great thing to water these delicate flowers each day? They are the planting of the Lord in His garden through your hard work and prayers, and cooperation with His Mother. I watch with delight each day as they choose the better way, to walk the higher road and enter in--through the narrow gate. This gives Me much pleasure and joy, as does working with you.

I do wish you could recognize how happy I am when we work together. You have far more condemnation every day that keeps you riveted to Satan's mirror. When he in fact is the one who deserves the condemnation. I truly wish for you to delight in working with Me, as I find delight in working with you."

"Really??"

"Yes, really and truly, I want you to enjoy our corroboration in all areas, music, art, messages, because truly We are a team, and it is the joyful work of Heaven that we do together. Try to keep this in mind when you set out to work. You are not alone, both Mary and I are with you, to help, inspire, protect and cause you to bring forth the anointing."

"Holy Spirit, You make me smile."

"That was precisely My intention, little one. And I promise you, you ARE little, very little indeed."

"But what about Pride?"

"All of you have this in one degree or another, but the more you can enjoy Me, the less you will be prone to pride. You have come a long way in this, can't you feel it?"

"I always fear deception."-- --

Holy Spirit continued, "That is healthy, but not if it fully occupies your mind so that you can't enjoy Me. I really want you to enjoy Me. And to all Heart dwellers, I work with each of you just as I do with Mother Clare, what I wish for her, goes for you as well. Please enjoy the creative work you undertake, I am there with you always, even waiting for you to recognize that you are working with Me, you are not alone. You know when we have worked together, there is a resolution that brings sweetness and many times even answers that seems to be impossible, for instance with your recording equipment when it malfunctions, don't I always help you solve it? When you can't find something and ask for My help, does it not appear immediately before your very eyes?"-- -- --

"It's a miracle every time."-- --

"Well, I wish to stress to this My Family of Heart Dwellers, that each of you has something they were born to do, whether it is raising children, caring for an infirm husband, leading a community or teaching. All of you have been equipped to do something very special and particular according to the gifts you were given. And My great joy is to help you find that task and work with you to accomplish it."-- --

"I know I have grieved you when I have wasted time by allowing myself to be distracted."-- --

"I am happy to see your resolution of faithfulness and turning down the many invitations to do something different than what I am there to help you do. You are growing. Please My sweet family, do not allow your life to end in distractions with nothing done that you were called to do. Please do not hearken to the flesh or the devils when you set out to do a task you were anointed for. Please be ruthless with both your flesh and the enemy, turn away from them, resolving not to be drawn off course.

"It is in fact a very rare soul that does all they were born to do. Be one of those rare souls and bring Us, (Father, Son, Holy Spirit) supreme joy in your obedient and well directed lives. You see, each of you are a puzzle piece that fits with other pieces in the plan of salvation of even just one soul. You were born for this purpose to glorify God and bring the Gospel to the lost. So, if you allow distractions and worthless things to occupy your time, you will never succeed in your mission.-- --

"So take hold of that mission, count yourself highly blessed to know what you are to do in your life because not all souls know that, and apply yourself to do your part as I work with you, and together we shall bring forth the fruit of salvation from our efforts. Oh how I love to work with you, please keep that in mind, it is My delight, and you all are My delight."

Later in the evening, St. Padre Pio came to me and said, "I want you to stop being so sad. You have brought forth a beautiful family with the Lord, please Clare, so don't be sad and gloomy, you have much to rejoice over both here and in Heaven. I will see you there soon."-- --

"Really, is it still soon?" Mother Clare asked eagerly.

I heard laughter in the background, "I told you she'd ask that!" It was members of the great cloud of witnesses laughing over my predictability. Knowing I wouldn't let his comment rest...of course I would grill him about when.

He conceded with a good-natured smile, "Yes daughter, soon."

Then St. Francis stepped forward and said, "Hold fast, you are proceeding in the right direction, this is what I wanted for you truly, you are doing what I have desired of you. Put away this toxic sadness and live in the joy from within that is your portion. Please." "I'll try." "Good."

Mother Clare continued, "All I can say is that I wanted to do this more perfectly. We've made lots of mistakes, I've made lots of mistakes, and I wish we could be more penitent. But it comes slowly. There are some who couldn't handle the kind of penance I wish we had. This community is made up of some common folk like me, who love Jesus with all their hearts but are far from being stellar successes in life. He is taking our little and multiplying it. Oh, how He loves to raise up the lowly and give them privileges that the educated are too intelligent to receive. Take heart you lowly ones, He will make you shine like the stars in the sky if you give Him your five loaves and two fishes."

Darkness Covers the People & Child Trafficking

Oh Lord, enter into the territory of the wicked and unrighteous and with Your great mercy, move on their hearts and heal those who harm the innocent. Thank you for Your hedge of protection over the children and deliver them from all evil. Amen.

During the Resurrection decade of the Glorious Mysteries when it mentions the earth quakes as the angel rolls back the stone, the guards flee in terror due to God's power. I saw the earth, that Blessed Mother was holding in her hands in a painting, and the earth started shaking violently and uncontrollably and then it stopped shaking but seemed to be still reeling from the after effects. I then heard Isaiah 60 verse 2, which reads, "See, darkness covers the earth and thick darkness is over the peoples, but the Lord rises upon you and His glory appears over you."

Blessed Mother began speaking, "There are many who are living double lives. They say there are Christians and followers of My Son in the light of day, at church and charitable functions, but do unspeakable things that are hidden and done in darkness. Elisabeth, you and all my children, need to pray for these atrocities to end against the innocent, and for those who commit them to turn away from their sinful and wicked ways. Those covered in this filth must be shown the light and brought to My Son, repent and receive His great mercy."

Just then, I saw a large, white, beautiful colonial styled house in an upper middle-class neighborhood. The family inside was just finishing dinner, the children were heading towards their video games and TV and the wife was clearing the dinner plates and bringing them into the kitchen. The well-dressed husband in a business suit was heading downstairs into the basement. There was a bookshelf against one wall that had a mechanism behind one of the books that opened up the entire bookshelf revealing a secret door. On the back of the secret door was sound proofing material and on the walls, ceiling and floor of this rather large room. Three children were there, two very young girls and a boy, ages five to seven, and they were chained to the floor. The vision ended with the feeling of fear and terror emanating from the children.

Mother Mary continued, "Those that perform wicked acts need your prayers. Most people do not have the courage to speak up when they become aware of the horrible doings of others. Their family members, friends, co-workers and employees who suspect or know about their evil deeds, say nothing and do nothing so as to not "rock the boat." Wives are turning a blind eye to the detestable and unimaginable, abhorrent behavior of their husbands because they do not want to lose their comfortable lifestyles, their status in social circles and at their country clubs.

"My children, sin must be recognized and brought into the open for healing and redemption to begin to take root. I would like all of you to give up something this week that you would normally enjoy for the salvation of these souls and for protection over their innocent victims. They have no one to pray for them, please set aside your human emotions of horror and disgust and pray for these souls to be pulled out of the darkness and their twisted by Satan mindset and help bring them to the mercy seat of divine love."

Mother Mary began speaking to Mother Clare, "This day that you spent exhausted, was most certainly intercession for the children trapped in this horrible system of child sacrifice to obtain their life force."

"Oh Mother, when will this be brought to an end."-- --

"Unfortunately, it will get much worse before it gets better."-- --

"It is so heart breaking...and where is President Trump? Seems like he just opened the can of worms and now it is so much worse."-- --

"Nothing of any great stature will get done until My Son returns. It will continue to get darker and darker. Your prayers do have a substantial impact on these little ones. You know how the mercy of God is. Would you like me to tell you how He is handling this?"

"Yes, please."

Blessed Mother continued, "They are taken out of their bodies Clare, they can see what is going on but they feel nothing. The body however does respond to the pain, but they are removed from the body. The difficult part is when they come back to themselves, they suffer terribly. You see, all these little ones made an agreement at their assignment to a body, that they would offer themselves as victims for the cruelties of the human race and in time they would be permanently lifted out of their bodies to be with God in Heaven forever.-- --

"They come from every tribe and nation, and each is a living holocaust for civilization and mankind. Their eternity in Heaven will be unlike any other. They will remember nothing from their lifetime here, and they will overflow with blissful happiness for all eternity. Some will join the choirs of Heaven to sing, others will abide in a place of extreme happiness with other children, and nothing will be denied them.-- --

"For a little season of terrible suffering on earth, their eternity is guaranteed, in the most blissful places forever. There are so many things you do not understand about these relationships and how souls come to understand their quickly passing part in this wicked world."-- --

The blessed Mother had a little child by the hand. She was blond with curly hair and perfect blue eyes, she had been completely redeemed and restored and had no recollection of her lifetime on earth. She was bubbly and her eyes sparkled with joy. She was perfect to look at and seemed supernaturally filled with effervescent life.

"You will see many such as these when you come here. And it will be impossible to tell the difference between who was ritualistically killed, and who was not, so thorough will be their healing and restoration.

"Oh do pray Clare, and all my children! Pray so very hard for these little ones, what they have gone through is so very terrible. Their reward is perpetual joy beyond anything we can measure and they are deeply in love with My Son. Their worship is so pure that it puts Him in an ecstasy when they open their little mouths to sing. It will do quite the same for you when you come here."

"When Mother? When? Oh Mother, I will be so glad when this is over, once and for all, over."

"Time is closing in on the reality of the end, time is closing in. Please look to me for help Clare and all my children. Please come to me knowing I will not leave you without help. What you are living through is only a taste of what is yet to come. But I promise you, you will be taken out up and away very soon, time is closing in, you haven't long to wait."

Rapture Disappointment

Lord Jesus, please give us Your Heart for the lost along with endurance to run our race to the end. Amen.

After feeling so distant from the Lord, I went to my special books that I only go to when I am really having a problem, and what do I open to? "The Rapture!" The minute I saw that my heart fell, and I felt sick, and I realized am upset that the Rapture has not happened yet. Upset, right? Interesting I, I had not really acknowledged that, ok? And it was under the surface. So, I am upset about the Rapture, waiting, and waiting and nothing. Lord does it not say in Your word, that a cloud that brings no rain is a disappointment?

And Jesus replied immediately. He said, "Are you angry with Me?"

I said I am hurt and tired, but I love You and I know there are others you want to save. Oh, I cannot hide anything from You. I am disheartened.

And Jesus replied, "Could that have anything to do with our communication 'block?' Could it be that you are blocking Me out of insecurity, lying spirits, or feeling lost?"

Yes Lord, I feel very lost. Downright depressed.

"You are not a false prophet; you are just impatient. My heart is broken in two for these souls and you want the first flight out of Dodge. You are tired, you are spent, you are disappointed with Me."

Oh Lord that is terrible. I do not ever want to be disappointed with You.

"You cannot hide it from Me."

I know, I am heart sick and selfish.

"Thank you for recognizing that."

I am sorry that I am this way.

"Well, what are we going to do about it?"

I do not know; the hurt is deep. I do not want to be this way, I just am.

"...Human. You are just human, Clare."

Oh, so human. And I hate being human. I want to be your faithful spouse cheering us on as we run our last course together, not a pouting old couch potato.

"I understand," he said.

I am SO disappointed, disillusioned...that prophet was right. She said that we were at least five years away from the Rapture. But YOU sent me a confirmation the next day that it was close and Mother Elisabeth's mother...she said any time.

Jesus continued, "I also sent you the story about the slight delay My Father granted Me."

Lord I do not want to feel this way, it is fatal disappointment. Please take it away. Please. I want to be supportive of whatever You desire, not selfishly wanting a ticket out of here.

He said, "Well at least now we have got it out in the open."

Yes, thank you. It sure is ugly. But Ezekiel is feeling it too.

Jesus continued, "Clare, My whole Body is feeling it, not just you two. And if you think for one moment that I am not feeling it, well, you are wrong. Not just the sin that continues, especially the torture of innocent children that troubles Me. I long to have you in Heaven with Me, I truly do. Let it suffice for now that we write love letters back and forth to one another. But My heart is still longing to hold you in My arms and whisper, "Well done...."

"This is a trial for Me as well, Beloved. I do love you; I do miss you, and I want all of this to be over with, but so many souls hang in the balance in this hour. We have already done so much to get their attention, but it has not had the desired result. Earth and sky changes will be an aid to getting their attention. Yet, My Mercy has held back some of the worst things that should have happened by now. There is a balance I must consider, not only in terms of fulfilling Scripture and punishing the sinful, but the dynamics between nations is also headed towards fulfillment.

"My People, My Brides, do not think for one moment this delay, and these trials are easy for Me. Though I weep copious tears for those unjustly kidnapped, tortured and murdered, though I weep for those who are perpetrating these crimes against humanity, and long to save them, though I see the total exhaustion of My Brides every day, I must do all I can to save as many as I can. It is costing Me dearly, hour by hour, as we all labor together to save as many as we can.

"I promise you Clare, I will not let you fail or lose your salvation."

Now at this point, I know that the Rapture is real. It must be 'pre-something,' the worst part of it because that was taught in the early church. And it was a sign of being kosher that they really were connected with true doctrine that they believed in a pre-tribulation Rapture. That is the early church, and so I adhere to that, but a lot of things are going on right now that look like they are fulfilling Scripture or are about to fulfill Scripture, especially the comets and the meteorites and things like that, and the earthquakes and the wars, it is just everything.

So, I was beginning to get weary, and I was feeling like I do not, I am afraid I am not going to be able to last through this. I am afraid I am not going to have the strength to live through whatever is coming before the point that we are Raptured because I am so tired and I feel so weak, I was honestly questioning, 'Am I going to be saved, or am I going to lose it?' Because of being exhausted. Well, that is when He said,

"I promise you Clare, I will not let you fail or lose your salvation. I promise you, My Beloved Brides, I am sending you the graces you need to endure until the end. I am trying to make it easier for you. I know what each of you suffer every day that goes by without the Rapture. I hear the laughter and derision, scorn, and contempt that you endure every day. I suffer all the torments you suffer as you do your very best to touch souls and remain faithful to Me. I see everything, I miss nothing, and I share in your disappointments, I share in the shame heaped on you, I share in the fatigue of seeing so many turn a deaf ear, even when I send them special provision to reach into their hearts.

"Truly My Beloved ones, we are ONE, for I suffer with you, everything you must endure, I endure it with you. We are one. So now I am appealing to your love for Me...please walk this last mile with Me and bring as many as you can into the Kingdom of God. For the fruit is ripe and I am about to shake the tree with such violence that every piece of fruit will fall to the ground. And you will be there to gather it up into My barns.

"I am sending you renewed anointings, renewed hope and strength, renewed resolve to gather in your arms as much fruit as your arms can hold, but I need you to cleave to Me with all your heart and soul. Do not expect to do this on your own, rather wait for the grace and then move forward with great vigor and stamina.

"You say to Me, 'What vigor, what stamina? I am exhausted.'"

"And I say to you, "Wait for it My Brides, wait for it, and pray and hope and prepare yourselves for action because the time is coming when you will collect the fruit that others have planted and watered. The time is coming when you will experience true joy in your salvation."

While He is talking to me, my faith is like a dirty, limp dish rag. I have nothing, I am bankrupt, lacking hope and faith. Lord, You know the only reason I am writing this down is because it is Your voice. But as far as having a witness to what You are saying, I am failing miserably. God help me, come to my rescue. How can I spread this message when my very own heart is in such a disheveled condition?

"Do not be afraid Clare," Jesus continued, "Grace is coming to lift you back up on your feet. Do not despair, I will not let you down. It is good that those who visit this channel should see your weakness, for they too are in the same run-down state of desperation. And just as I shall fill you and you will rally, so shall I fill them that they may be faithful to the end.

"Did you think you could do this on your own??? Did you really believe you could carry these crosses in your own strength?? All of you, I want you to know, there are assignments against your faith, that have been sent out like salt on fire. Yes, wherever you live, there are covens nearby that operate to discourage and cause failure in Christian communities. They are all over the world and growing because this is Satan's hour. This is his stand to drag all souls to Hell, and every Christian on this Earth has been targeted.

"But I say to you, this is YOUR hour to stand up and take back territory, to shut down the works of darkness and break through the barriers, charging through their midst and crushing every work of the enemy. And you shall have the anointing to do this if you cleave to Me and allow Me to empower you with My Love for fallen mankind, yes, even for the Satanists that curse you.

"There is no power on earth like love. They have only known hatred and vengeance, but you have known love, you have drunk deeply from the depths of My love for you and Love shall triumph over evil. In the end, love shall prevail. But with every step you take, wearing the sandals of the Gospel of Peace, love will leave an imprint and those who seek to destroy you shall also step into this imprint and it will begin to melt their hearts. Many will come to Me, weary from the battle, seeking some kind of rest, and I will receive them into My Heart.

"You who think Satan loves you, you too are growing weary, you too have doubts that perhaps this path you have committed to is a lie and a failure. You too feel the discouragement and the letdown that this path is heartless and cold. Something inside of you is stirring and saying, 'You have been deceived, this is not the path to happiness and fulfillment.' This is the path to ever increasing bitterness, hatred, and wrath. This is the path to pain, suffering and disappointment. But unlike My People, there is no good reward for you, because there is only pain in store for Satan and all who serve him. He is not My equal, he is but a fallen angel, eaten up with hatred, jealousy, vengeance, and an unquenchable lust to drag all, including you, to Hell.

"He has taught you to kill, steal, and destroy, because he is the fallen one of destruction, forever jealous of Me and My kingdom, forever committed to killing the souls I have created. But his time is drawing to a close, his time is short, and he knows it, so his wrath has no limits and you who are caught in the web of his lies will be his favorite quarry, for he will torment you and laugh you to scorn for believing every lie he fed you. Yes, he will delight in betraying you into despair.

"What is the remedy for you? Since you do not believe Me, listen to Near Death Experiences and what happens to a soul when they die. Read John Ramirez, Satan's lead man in New York City. He will tell it like it is. You will get a clear 3D picture of what is behind the empty promises of this hateful creature.

"Do you know he set you up from the beginning by abusing you and introducing you to fear, hatred, and despair? Yes, he set you up by manipulating those around you, you thought you could trust. Then when you reached the end of the end he showed up and offered you a path to defense, a path to destroy and punish those he sent to turn you against the world. Then he showed up as your benevolent savior, the father you never had, the big brother you never had, the priest you never had. Yes, he corrupted those people so you would have nowhere to turn except into one of his covens.

"He has literally, in some cases, rubbed the scaly skin off his hands, gleefully wringing them in anticipation of how he is going to make you scream in torment just when you are confident of your reward in his kingdom. He fears the day of his demise but anticipates the torture he will perform on his most faithful servants, servants that have been eaten up with hatred and vengeance towards Me, and everything holy.

"Consider, my children who have turned to the wicked one, consider, he has taught you to rape, kill, destroy and torture. Do you really think there is anything benevolent in him? Do you really think he is capable of love? When John Ramirez was tired and asked Satan, who by the way showed up every night to instruct him, when John asked for a vacation because he was exhausted from twenty years of cursing and evil doing, Satan said, 'Sure, I will give you a break.' And then he proceeded to make John blind for one year. Here was the great Satanist whom everyone feared, being led around by the hand of his mother. After twenty years of faithful cursing, his reward was the embarrassment of being led by the hand of an old woman. That is exactly what you can expect from Satan.

"John is still alive after leaving the service of Satan because I am protecting him. I will also protect you if you will come to Me confessing your sins, asking forgiveness, and giving Me your life. I will wash you clean as snow; I will lift you up and hold you tenderly in My arms, wiping away the tears of your wasted years. I will forgive you and give you new life, and a happiness you never believed possible. All this I will do for you because I love you and you are precious to Me. Do not fear to come to Me, My children, forsake the devil, forsake evil and embrace a love you have never known. I am for you, not against you. I will cleanse you of blood guilt. I will put a new garment upon you and adorn you with jewels. All this I will do for you because I really, truly, love you with a love you have never known.

"Come to Me, my yoke is easy, and I shall give you rest."

And that was the end of His part of the message.

Dear Satanists, God will do what He promised, and you will not have to wait till your body dies for you to have His love and mercy. Read John Ramirez, a chief among Satanists, he deployed demons and principalities to different areas of New York City. He had judges, congressmen and the rich and famous in his coven and through his hard work of cursing, he advanced to a high position in the kingdom of darkness. Then, one day, he met Satan face to face in the train to Hell. Satan knew he was beginning to convert to Christ, so he purposed to kill him. But he could not because Jesus stepped in and held the cross in Satan's face and took John back from the railway to Hell.

"Out Of the Devil's Cauldron" tells the story. John is all over YouTube telling stories of how he cursed people, churches, and locations so there would be fatalities and havoc. He shares many of the secrets of the kingdom of darkness in all his books. You will see a side of evil previously hidden from you, and see clearly that Satan is a fallen angel, not an equal or the brother of Jesus. If you are so determined to serve Satan, you will get to know him better.

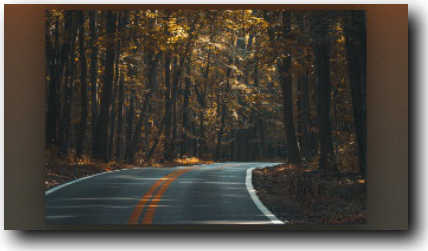
Heart Dwellers, please, pray for these entrapped in a lie. Pray for them to see what has been hidden from them so they can make an informed decision as to who they will serve.

You Are Turning A Corner

November 19, 2021



Lord, give us the courage to hold fast to Your promises and to keep moving forward in Your divine will. Thank You for the grace to correspond with Your graces. Amen.

Father Ezekiel began, "I saw a very large ship, like the size of a Carnival Cruise ship moving forward, slowly but steady it kept moving in forward motion in a straight line. I got the sense that the cruise ship represented our community. After some time, it started to turn a corner, turning to the right in a slow, methodical and deliberate motion. The large ship wasn't exactly turning on a dime, it was turning and turning and finally made the turn.

"Once it started steadily moving along after turning right, I saw all the colors of a prism, brilliant, beautiful colors and every color you could imagine shooting out from the ship. The colors were stunning and you could see tubes with these wonderful arrays of color and souls going to and from the community through these amazing tubes. It was fun and incredible to watch these souls as they came into the community and shot back out into the world as shining, bright lights, almost as if they were glowing with the glory of God. I heard the words, "You are turning a corner."

The same day Father Ezekiel had this vision, earlier in the morning upon waking I heard the Lord say, "Keep moving forward, you are making headway and are turning a corner, you are turning a corner." The exact words He had spoken to Father Ezekiel.....this totally blew my mind! Sure enough, when I opened my email, I read that we went to contract on some land in the desert where the Lord wanted us to establish a community and ministry to reach out to the impoverished who reside in the area. These people are the forgotten ones and keep to themselves. Many of them live in shanties, buses and crudely built makeshift sheds. They are so in need of healing and love from someone who cares. They are hungry and the field is ripe for them to experience the love of Jesus and we have been instructed to bring it to them when the Lord gives us the "green light."

The Lord has communicated to us that there are demonic infestations and there will be deliverances, healing and miracles. We are waiting for the Lord's timing as we will feel an excited, expectancy and there will be signs and wonders in the sky.

Blessed Mother began speaking, "Do not worry about currently not having the funds to complete the purchase of the land, the Lord will provide. This is His desire and all things will be accomplished according to His will and timing. You would do well Elisabeth to have more trust and strengthen your belief in His divine providence. That peace that came over you and your brother while waiting three days for the seller's response was from My Son.

"When you trust in Him to provide, you will have peace and a joy believing that everything will work out in the end. Jesus is your bread, your inspiration and your strength to persevere. The more all my children accept and trust in divine providence, the more the Lord will manifest His goodness and wisdom. You are all called to respond to grace, this has proven difficult for some of you, while others flourish as they have learned to work in union with His graces. It often goes against your human nature when situations and people contradict your expectations, when there is injustice and suffering, when God seems to have abandoned you and nothing seems to make sense. It takes a certain level of spiritual maturity and intimacy with Jesus to surrender to divine providence. This includes resilient faith and trust that God is in control and nothing happens without his permissive will.

"Dear children, if God allows it to happen then He intends to bring about a greater good. Suffering has value and meaning precious ones. When you suffer, you all have the opportunity to unite your suffering to My Son's and participate in His work of redemption. Ask me for my faith and I will give it to you, so that you all may know the unspeakable joy of corresponding with His graces and strengthen your resolve to continue moving forward in His divine will." And that was the end of Our Lady's message.

Dear Heart Dwellers, we have great need for wood, supplies, food and to complete the purchase of the Lord's desert ministry. Any amount of funds and prayers would be so very helpful at this point. You all are very much loved and greatly appreciated. We are so humbled by your faithfulness. God bless you and keep you.

Wake Up! Times Are Serious

November 21, 2021

Lord, give us the grace to endure trials with that deep and underlying joy that can only come from Your Holy Spirit as You guard our hearts and minds with the truth of Your faithfulness to all Your promises. Amen.

Mother Clare began, "Mother, I don't know why we are so tired, is it an assignment or the pulses that are incoming?"

"It is a suffering, backing up prayers of salvation for those who are utterly lost. It is your turn right now to carry these crosses. Do not let that distract you though. However, it is a sign, another sign that we are approaching the end times. And as you discussed, people are ignoring it in their daily struggles to survive and make a living off this opportunity. My fear is that they will all perish.

"Pray for someone among them to seriously wake up, right now they are gambling with their own lives. It is as you have said, there are so many signs and yet none are sufficient to cause them to take another look and do what is necessary to survive. It is very hard for people to give up something they have worked so hard for. Remember how hard it was for you when you left the mountain.-- --

"The whole world is changing and yet many are not taking notice, figuring that their safety depends upon ignoring the signs that are everywhere. It is a perversion of the practice of positive thinking. Things are waking up slowly, for some imperceptibly, for others who are awake, it is clear to them that things will get much worse. I want you to pray for them Clare. Pray for those who are leaders that they will awake and warn others around them.

"Do you see how patient My Son is? He waits, then He send signs, then He waits again, and sends more signs, He brings others together, in on it and warnings go out. But people are slow to pay attention especially when it comes to leaving everything behind. I do understand, yet the consequences are so serious for them. Do they value their possessions more than their lives? Their possessions are their lives. And so the answer is "Yes."

"None the less, imagine if you were in that position, hoping the volcano would soon stop, but having all your possessions buried in the lava. Pray for them and be compassionate and understanding."

"Mother please ask Jesus to give me a heart that really cares."

Blessed Mother continued, "Living for others takes time, but thank you. This is merely a foreshadowing of what is yet to occur on the whole earth, over and over again. As tensions rise the output increases, but not just there, all over the world. We are moving towards cataclysmic circumstances. Yes, the earth is VERY unstable now and its awakening is a slow process. While you are anxious to see the signs of His coming, it is still very painful for Him."-- --

"That creates in me a real conflict, what am I to think?"

"Ask for more grace to be able to work under the pressures that are now increasing all over the world. Some indeed are beside themselves, sensing keenly that time is coming to a close. If things were happening more suddenly, more would wake up, but then they would not have the time to turn from their evil ways. This is being done this way so they can wake up, little by little, and be given the opportunity to repent.-- --

"Clare, they have heard about the Rapture and end times events for so long, it fails to alarm them. That button is quite flat and surrounded by ridicule. None the less, as things progress in seriousness, they too will begin to get it, then they shall act. The world is in flux right now with different powers vying for control. It is in the hands of those who pray, as to what will be the outcome. Stand firm, my children, stand firm."

Pray for the Refugees Around the World But Especially Here

Lord, please heal the broken hearted and those who are suffering due to being driven from their homeland. Fill them with Your peace and provision that can only come from You during these difficult times. Walk closely beside them and protect them and keep them in Your loving embrace. Amen.

Blessed Mother began speaking, "When things become more difficult in this country, all will be praying, not just a few. For now, it is the minority that are dedicated to prayer, then, many will turn to God as their only hope. It will become obvious that only God can rescue them from what is coming upon the world. I am speaking to you Clare."

"Forgive me Mother."

"There is nothing to forgive, you are struggling to be sure it is my voice you are hearing and that is part of the function of discernment. Be at peace Clare, truly beloved daughter, I am with you. Do not become discouraged by the physical pains, these are wedding presents for your spouse."

"What is on your heart tonight dear lady?"

"All the suffering souls around the earth who have no one to comfort them, who have no medicine and feel like they are just cattle being moved around. They have no dignity, no rights, no comfort, only uncertainty. Yes, they are in dire need of all things. Pray for them please.-- --

"Here you have respect for one another, you know and love each other. In their lives there is little or no love, only being assigned a number and moved from place to place with the uncertainty of what is happening to their children, brothers and sisters. To the world they are non-entities, only a huge burden. This is the most demeaning place any man, woman or child could possibly be. These are the refugees of the world; I need you to pray for them. Pray for the children to be reunited to their parents and relatives. Pray they will be kept safe and not turned over to the traffickers and cartels. It is a very great travesty all over the earth that is taking place now Clare. If you could be there, it would break your heart, please do what you can for them, there is so much suffering.

"You can stand with them, by passing the word, for all to pray for those running from violent regimes. Pray for food, lodging and medicines. Pray for the pregnant women ready to give birth. Pray for husbands and wives to be reunited. There is simply no way to convey to you how horrible the conditions are for those souls caught in this trap. Pray for the refugees around the world but especially here.

"It is a truth that this world is far worse off than anyone suspects. The conditions for humanity are deplorable. Even the rats keep their distance in some places where the neglected ones are."-- --

"I know Mother that they are stuck on container ships to be used for adrenochrome and many of them die in transit, the conditions are so deplorable."

"Yes, pray for them Clare, all my children please pray as they are so in need of your prayers."

Lord-I Release Ezekiel to You

November 22, 2021

We will trust in the Lord with all our hearts, and will bring offerings to Him and exult in His mighty ways, for who can know the depths of His wisdom and provision? In You we trust Jesus, with all our hearts. Keep us resolute in You, no matter what goes on around us. Amen.

Well, my dear ones, we were given the word this night that I believe points to a little bit more time, possibly be around two years, but Our Lady was not explicit as you will see from her quote below. Two more years while the dark side takes the reigns of the planet and turns it into a living Hell. And along with this understanding, I have made the conscious decision not hold my precious husband, Ezekiel, back from the Lord. We were given a word years ago that he would be healed here, and we would be Raptured together. But recently the Lord gave him a choice to stay or go, he chose to stay for our sake. And we thought the Rapture would be in the fall. And he imparts a great deal of wisdom and empathy to every member of the community and is dearly loved for his genuine caring and interest in each one. He will spend hours listening to a soul that really needs to be heard.

I know I am thinking like a human, but, since He keeps pushing the date back, - The Lord, that is- I wonder if His promise still holds. I thought we could hang on until the Rapture, certainly if it had happened this fall, before the Lord asked the Father for more time, Ezekiel has been suffering so very much I could not ask that he stay just for me. The torment of seeing him suffer two more years is more than I can bear. So, I have told the Lord that I will no longer hold him back. But He made a promise to me, that Ezekiel would be healed, but something really must change, I do not know what it is. Maybe if all of you pray, there will be a change.

Ezekiel and I just talked about this, and we realized that the Lord just might allow us, still to be Raptured almost...together, him from the grave and me from our little hermitage. The ways of the Lord are not to be put in a box...and who knows...when the Rapture happens, how much time there will be from the time the sleeping souls are raised and we who are still awake will be raised. He did not make a point of telling us whether it would be hours, minutes, or seconds, so it just might be a shorter interval, like the twinkling of an eye, maybe?

It is the monastic tradition that souls know the time of their departure ahead of time and I have been feeling a tug in my heart to release him from this horrible suffering, and that somehow, there would be joy in all of this. My readings tonight, when I asked about him, were "Patience," about how the farmer waits for the harvest, and in the Imitation of Mary book, "Preparation for Death, "and then in the Bible Promises again, "Joy" ...you will go out with joy and the trees of the fields will clap their hands. WOW! That sounds like a healed husband going up in the Rapture to me. Dear ones, please forgive my weak faith and pray for stronger faith.

Then I went and pulled a card from the Rhema box of two thousand cards we have made in the last forty years, for Ezekiel and me, and it said, "Your end draws near and comes; your time has expired."

If this is true, I am at peace with letting him go, but I am not at peace with seeing him suffer any longer, because I want to keep him here. Two years is just too much to see him suffering as he is. So, Lord, I place him completely in your hands as to when he goes to be with You, or if You will keep Your promise.

I can tell you this much, of all the people I have known that have passed, I felt them closer after their bodies fell asleep, than when they were alive. If you have read our book, Chronicles of the Bride, the introduction is all about my mother's death, and how much closer we feel now than when she was in her body.

Now about the two years. Tonight, Our Lady said, and this is a direct quote, "The next two years will be more difficult than you can now imagine as Satan takes the reigns of this world. You have studied Revelation, you know what is to happen, be faithful to reach the world with these messages. Do not allow their disillusionment with the Rapture delay, cause them to fall asleep. Rather, rally to wake them up and take action." Wow! She is talking like the warrior queen she is appointed to be in the end times. Every angel and citizen of Heaven has appointments just like St. Michael, so it is within the realm of Biblical conformity for the Great Cloud of Witnesses.

Well, it was after this revelation from her, and I guess you could say I assumed we were going to be around for two years because she talked about the next two years, but that is not a definite, I mean the Rapture could happen any time.

So, after I heard this revelation from her, I made the decision, to let go, if the Lord chooses. Besides, I know I will be close to Ezekiel in the spirit realm as I believe he will be permitted to visit us from Heaven and look in on us like the Great Cloud, at least in the spirit. He will be far more dangerous to the enemy from there, than he is from here.

Yes, it does hurt deeply to imagine life without him by my side in the physical, but we all have work to do, and his mission is just beginning, very much like St. Therese the Little Flower, that she said that she would spend her eternity doing good on Earth. I am genuinely excited for him, and I know the Lord will give me the grace to heal and keep going, no matter what happens. Nevertheless, if the Lord takes him sooner, we will be praying the Lord's suppers for him, for all of us have spots, wrinkles, and blemishes on our wedding gowns.

Lord Jesus, is there something You want to say?

After a little bit of a wait, He replied,

"Yes Beloved, there is." Eye has not seen, ear has not heard, nor has the human heart imagined what I have prepared for those who love Me." That is from First Corinthians 2:9 "And thank you for trusting Me to fulfill My promise to you, perhaps even in a way different from what you were expecting. My first choice is for His healing and the Rapture. But just as he saw angels outside his window with trumpets to their mouths, I sensed it as well and fell prostrate before My Father asking Him for just a little more time so that my death would not be in vain."

"But because you have yielded to My will, you will see the fulfillment of My promise to you, even if it should be in a way different from what you thought. This is not the end of your work. There is still much in store for you both to work together. Thank you for trusting Me."

Well, and here I want to say, please understand dear family, that my discernment on this subject is shaky and faltering because of the emotional weight of it, so I had to re-edit this message in areas where I felt it was a little, maybe off, on discernment and especially because Mother Elisabeth and some other people got " God's Faithfulness" twice in a row from Bible Promises and the Lord gave me " Joy," patience and joy from the Bible Promises.

Precious family, the timing of the Rapture has been set back three times that I know of, since 2015. When the Lord gave me this promise that Ezekiel would be alive for the Rapture, even though He is God, only the Father knows when He will call the trumpets to blow. Much has depended on the cooperation of souls, to repent and convert. And because of the hardness of hearts at this time, it is taking much more to bring about so many conversions, and according to the Lord's messages to us, the Rapture should have already taken place. But Jesus continues to ask the Father for just a little more time, and so this has meant for Ezekiel, more suffering. I really believed he would be healed when we came up here, but we are still waiting, praying, and trusting that whatever God wills is best for all. That is my unbelief, I will not know the answer to that until Heaven, but I do not want to be a part of keeping him here, even though he wants to stay and be with us. He has had many conversations with the Lord about the good he will be able to do from Heaven.

Thank You Jesus for the peace of heart I have about all of this. Please forgive me if I have been at fault in not praying for him enough. I truly do not know what else I could have done.

Please continue to pray for us precious family, as we set our sails in resoluteness to follow the Lord's plan. This has been a very productive summer, with seven new vocations to the monastic life. Most of them came from different countries in Europe and Asia, stayed for 3 months for training and went back to begin their own work with people of their nation. We are also considering another location, in New Mexico for a second community that could house more people, we are committed to keeping the community on the mountain small as the mother house. Thank you for your prayers and support, we still have so much to do here. We are so grateful to all of you, and we pray for you every day.

Well, One of Ezekiel's favorite sayings, is, "God writes straight with crooked lines."

Well, I am still waiting to see this picture, how it is going to turn out. Pray for more faith for us, please.

God bless you dear family.

Oh How He Suffers

November 22, 2021

Lord, grant us Your strength, that we may not give up even when the trials increase. Help us to focus on You and not on ourselves or our problems, because we know that with You, God, all things are possible. Amen.

"Oh Mother it is just too terrible what is happening around the world!"

Mother Mary began, "You should see the face of my Son. It is beyond recognition in grief. There are not words for the torments He is suffering through in the hopes that situations will be gracefully resolved. But some people are so overtaken with the hatred of Satan, they in no way are thinking about anyone.

"For many it would be better if they had never been born. He feels everything very acutely Clare. This would be a good time to comfort Him. He has been living with these things for months as they continue to worsen. His whole body was covered with deep wounds.

"There is no end to His suffering, because there is no end to the suffering of mankind in this hour. And yet, He is willing to suffer still more for the sake of the lost. No one can understand the suffering of Our God, it is simply beyond comprehension, and yet He perseveres in this for the sake of the few that might be saved. Is it so great a thing in the face of this to join your sufferings to His? Is it too much to ask?"

"Certainly not. I am sorry I am so weak in suffering. How wonderful it must be for those who can bear with torments."

"Yes, you have seen that in your husband, oh Clare if only you could get but a taste, you would understand so much more. You have been placed in the safety of this place where you are surrounded with those who love you. There is also great protection. I want you all to know that each of you bring Him comfort in what He must suffer. I know it seems like only a little thing to carry your own crosses willingly, but it is not, the merits of doing that are many and will never be forgotten." "It is finished" ...even though He said that, it will never finish until Satan is no more and all hearts of mankind are restored."

The Battle is in the Mind

Hello, my name is Jim O' Connor and I am one of the Heart Dweller priests. Battles are often won in the mind. There is probably no greater example of this than the battle for Jerusalem during World War 1. The Ottoman Turks controlled Jerusalem. They were a fierce army and a great empire. The British Expeditionary force was on a mission to take Jerusalem from the Ottoman Turks, but they did not have the forces to do it. General Allenby had a great idea. He had his troops drop leaflets from hot air balloons on to the city.

The leaflets read, "Leave Jerusalem at once. Signed, Allenby." Allenby's penmanship was kind of poor, so it looked like it said, "Allah Be," which means, "Allah commands". The Turks, reading this, left the city immediately. The moral of this is, that the war was won, the battle was won in the mind, and Jerusalem was freed from the clutches of the Ottoman Turks.

Now this is a very simple fact. You need to understand in these end times, our will to fight and our will to resist and our will to do what Jesus wants us to do, if it is greater than the enemy's, we will prevail.

The Lord, give us wise, self-controlled, patient, faithful and courageous hearts. Fill our souls with devotion to Your service and strengthen us against all temptations. Amen.

The Lord began, "The battle within your minds is one of most importance that must be in sync with My Word. Satan cannot read your minds, but he can influence your thoughts My people. You must guard against unholy thoughts and bring your body into subjection from pride, lust, fear, anxiety, and selfishness. Intentionally shape your thought life in truth, My truth. The battle in your mind begins with untrue thoughts given to you by the enemy. Scripture is your barometer of truth to measure against these thoughts and take them captive and immediately dispose of them.

"Your thoughts are very powerful, so take proactive measures to combat negative thoughts by telling others of the blessings I've given you and ask Me for a grateful heart and I will cultivate one in you. When you give into corrupt thoughts through opinions, hunger of lust and power, along with convictions that exalt against the knowledge of God, you are allowing the enemy to first affect your mind and then alter your behavior.

"Your weapons are not carnal, but mighty in Me. Strongholds are demolished only by spiritual weapons. Every thought that is not from Me you must bind it and remove them permanently from your minds. How you ask? By asking Holy Spirit to take control of your thoughts. Faith is placing your trust in Me. Faith is the spiritual weapon that can cast down every stronghold and carnal thought.

"As children of God, you are engaged in a spiritual battle, as such your weapons of choice are not fleshly, but spiritual. As My followers you must carry your armor daily and at times you need to reequip yourself with your armor and put on additional pieces of protection as you feel moved by My Spirit. My double-edged sword is for you to carry for offense and defense. The Sword of the Spirit is also the Word of God. The helmet, breast and back plates, belt, shoes, and shield are your defensive weapons.

"My Word is powerful and sharper than any two-edged sword, it pierces the soul and spirit and is a discerner of the thoughts and intentions of the heart. When you allowed your thoughts, Elisabeth, to center on worldly things as you did earlier this morning, you let the devils in and they pounced on you because My hedge of protection was temporarily lifted, giving way to your self will. I allowed you to experience that horrible dream which you now still replay in your mind because darkness ran rough shot over you and your defenses were down. Once you turned your thoughts back to Me and began speaking in your heavenly language, you were able to overcome evil and drive the enemy back. This is what happens My precious ones when you are not focused on Me, studying My Word, listening to worship and praise music and reading holy books. All it takes is one negative thought and off you go falling into the enemy's trap that had been deceptively planned and laid out for you.

"Dear ones, negative, fearful, unwanted thoughts do not come from Me, but from Satan, the father of lies and he is good at manipulating wrongful thoughts in your mind. Know and use Scripture to injure your enemy. Hide My Word in your hearts so that you do not fall into sin.

"As My soldiers, you do not go to war without training and weapons. I am your warrior God, and your mind is precious to Me. Practice gratitude and give thanks in all things. Always look for the good in situations, this will shift your mind into positive thinking. Set your mind on Me and this will guard against any worldly infiltration." And that was the end of His message.

I was thinking about Colossians Chapter 3, "Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. Put to death therefore what is earthly in you; sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry.

Dear Heart Dwellers, let us all focus and meditate on a chapter or verse and write it down in your journal. Keep a gratitude journal of all that you are thankful for, everything that the Lord has provided for you and blessed you with. Proclaim verses against the battle in your mind. When you find yourself getting caught up in the lies that the devil whispers into your thoughts, speak life. God is life and He breathed life into us. The Bible says, "Resist the Devil and he shall flee." James 5:7 and "Speak to your mountain to be moved." Mark 11:23. Study God's attributes and remember how Big your Creator is in all things.

Complete trust in the power of Jesus can help us win the battle of the mind. If you look to yourself and rely on your abilities, you will fail. Look to your Lord and therein lies the victory. God bless you our wonderful family!

A Case of The Uglies & Warning Ignored

Lord, we desire to put You first in all areas of our lives. Help us to do so and give us the faith to trust You in all matters, so that we grow to rely on You more and more each day. Amen.

Mother Clare began, "Lord, I am missing You so much, I don't know how I can live much longer without one glance from You in my direction. I know I have been a total hypocrite at times, not waiting long enough to hear You in prayer. Even if I had to wait a million years...well, you know how foolish I am. Could you please visit me? How can I comfort you? Oh Blessed Mother, please tell me how I can comfort Jesus."-- --

"Stay with Him Clare. Don't let Him slip away. When you get a presentiment that He is near, drop everything and focus. Everyone else can wait."

"But I can't see Him now, how can I hold onto Him if I can't see Him? (Rereading this I am ashamed of my whining.) She didn't answer me but changed the subject."

"Because great suffering is coming and there have been so many warnings but they are not taken seriously."-- --

"Mother, the warnings never end, but we don't see the fulfillment of those."

"It is wearying, I understand that. But look around you Clare, you know time is short, they see the same signs but tend to brush them off, and continue on with the world. This is why He is so sad. So, many have had serious warnings but still they flirt with the world."

"Forgive me for my part."-- --

"Everything is in the motive, you are trying to supply for the community, this is legitimate. And you return to Him as soon as you can. This is the way He wants His Bride to react to the warnings, but others are so involved in their work, making money, the change of seasons, preparations and so many distractions. These will get caught in the midst of their business and catastrophe will overpower and engulf them. They have been warned but their ways are set on the things of the world, and they are slow to respond. The enemy chides them, "Oh you have plenty of time, just keep working."

"It shall come upon them like a bomb. Shock and awe are not adequate to describe what will happen. And will they be prepared? Some. But for the most part not all. Preparations will have to be made after the fact instead of before it, if they survive. Clare, people are set in their ways and are slow to respond. In fact, you suffer from the same issues at times. But this is no time to procrastinate, things are happening so fast. The Lord is discouraged because His Bride is beautiful, yet far from prepared."

"Forgive me Mother. You know how I am feeling as well. Discouraged because I have to wait again, even if it is only for a little while."

Blessed Mother continued, "Yes, I understand but remember you were once one of those unprepared sinners, and He extended the time just to save you. Therefore, it is only right that you bear with others as He makes His last-minute adjustments. Clare, so many are suffering that you know nothing about. For them, it is their last day on this earth, tomorrow they will be no more, or so they think. Don't allow these minor delays to pull you down into the pit of indifference."

"What can I do to help Mother?"

"Continue to pray daughter and instruct, soon enough there will be more to do."-- --

"I can't think straight Mother please help me. I know I need to organize, please help me get a handle on what needs to be done." "You have asked, I will help." (She really did, there was a substantial clarity and action that followed this message.)

"Thank you, Mother, I don't think I have ever felt so inadequate. I feel like a total failure. And I can't think straight from one moment to the next."-- -- -- --

"Let's start confessing clarity of thinking."-- --

"At this point I don't know where to start."

"You know your glasses have set you back in concentrating?"

"Yes, I can feel that. The ones I am wearing are hard to see through. Then later that day I learned that explosions on the sun, CME's (coronal mass ejections) had sent pulses towards the earth which disrupt thinking."

"This is a real suffering and requires so much more concentration, so persevere daughter. You are feeling the effects of much disorder on the earth as well as spiritual opposition. You can't always cover everything."-- --

"Mother could you please help with that?"

"A little bit, I can."

"Oh, thank you, I will receive anything in the way of help."

"Clare, understand that each day that goes by is another day closer to your liberation and the liberation of all men from the oppression of the enemy. Things are becoming more intense exponentially, this is part of what you are feeling. But I do thank you for waking up earlier and working. It is true that there is very little time left, so make the best of it."

"Mother I need a new perspective; I feel doggedly tired and lagging. Please help me to get on it, please? I love my work, but with this kind of fatigue it seems impossible."

"The Lord is with you. What more do you want?"

"I've got a bad case of the uglies. He must animate and take me over, because I have nothing but the dregs left."

"Be patient Clare, this too will pass."

"And it did, five days later." God bless you dear Heart Dwellers and thank you so much for supporting the Lord's work through this ministry.

Desert Dwellers Community

Dear Lord, please give us the strength when we are weak, love when we feel forsaken, and the courage and Godly wisdom to go forth boldly and proclaim all that You have done for us. Thank you for giving us the victory in You. Amen.

Dear Brothers and Sisters of the Most High God, this is Mother Elisabeth, and, like Caleb in the Bible, God has given us another assignment in our old age. Honestly, I'm tired and weak and just want to crawl into bed with a pint of Haagen Dazs, but, as I think about how Moses sent 12 spies, one from each of the tribes of Israel into Canaan to scout the territory. All the spies agreed on the richness of the land, but ten of them said Israel could not conquer it because its inhabitants were too powerful and their cities were like fortresses. Only Caleb and Joshua dared to contradict them. Caleb silenced the people before Moses and said, "We should go up and take possession of the land, for we can certainly do it."

The giants that occupied Canaan, proved no match for God's people. Caleb was physically strong, vigorous to old age and ingenious in dealing with trouble. Most importantly, he followed God with his whole heart.

Caleb knew that when God gave him a task to do, God would supply him with all he needed to complete that mission. Caleb spoke up for truth, even when he was in the minority. Often, to stand up for truth, we must stand alone. It's the WOWSE concept, With Or Without Someone Else. Why am I retelling you the story of Caleb? It's because we can learn from his example that our own weakness brings an inpouring of God's strength and it teaches us to be loyal to God, and at 85 years of age, Caleb asked God for another assignment.

This is the Bible story that ran through my mind when the Lord told me it's time for you all to work on My desert community and ministry. I ask Jesus to impart to all of us a refreshing of His spirit and the willingness and faith of Caleb. I asked, "Where do we begin Lord?"

He faithfully gave me dreams and visions of what the land would look like and how we were to build the community. The people we would be ministering to and helping would be like none we had ever experienced before. There will be demonic infestations, powerful generational strongholds and deep-rooted witchcraft in families that have been passed down throughout the generations. I was thinking, "Lord have mercy on these precious souls!"

Along with that, Jesus has told us there will be miracles, healing and deliverances, the likes we have never seen. All we need to do is be willing to cooperate with Him and work in union with His graces.

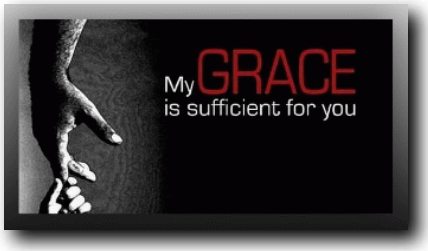
So, with two nickels to our name and exercising great faith in God, we went to contract on the land the Lord showed us, without having the funds to complete the purchase, let alone build anything on it or feed those in the area.

We reach out to you dear family, to help us complete the Lord's mission. We need your prayers and support to release these dear souls from a lifetime of captivity. These forgotten ones live in the most deplorable conditions and our assignment is to share God's love, His peace and bring them to His feet to experience His unending mercy and compassionate heart for them, so that their eternal destination will be Heaven, and not the fires of Hell.

God bless you dear ones and may the light of Christ shine on all around you.

Ask For God's Grace

November 25, 2021



Heavenly Father, through Jesus, You have extended grace to us. Help us to comprehend Your grace more and more in our lives. Grant us an increase of grace each day so that we can respond to Your love by loving others. Amen.

Blessed Mother began, "Clare I am here. I am always here, remember there is a part of me that is always present to you."

"Mother, I don't know how you do that?"

Mother Mary continued, "Grace. Very simply the working of grace. Grace manifests in so many different ways, whatever is needed grace manifests. This is due to the living power of God. It is alive and constantly being used to bring forth the kingdom and defend the defenseless. It is the living, breathing manifestation of God's immutable power. It is there for those who call on the Lord, grace permeates the air, but it is given in a very special way to His children when they are in need.

"It is so very important that you all rely on grace and not your own resources which are so very limited. Put the demand upon grace simply asking God to impart to you all that you need to complete something. Like you right now...you really need grace, but do not consciously call upon it in times of need, until you hit a brick wall. You could go so much further if you did call upon it beforehand. Simply pray, "Father, I need your help here. Please assist me with Your grace." And then watch what happens.

"I promise you that you could get so much further faster if you would approach everything as a pauper, calling upon His grace, even those things that you feel you already have the skill sets to do. My children, you are nothing without grace. Either the grace given at your birth or the graces acquired by faithfulness to the will of God. Once you have acquired it, then it is good that you give all the credit to the Lord. Remember, you are but the vessel. He could have chosen others, but He chose you, so be faithful to what has been given to you.

"There is much to do in this world and those who make full use of this grace excel at what they do. The question is, will you avail yourselves of this grace or will you act on your own, feeling self-confident that you can do this, whatever it might be. If you keep your heart and mind on Jesus, you will more often call upon Him to get something done that is beyond your skill level. He exults in working with others in a partnership.

"Beloved Clare, my very little one, when are you going to open your eyes to see Him. He has been with you all along, but you have shied away and not pierced the veil to see Him. He is beside you right now even as we speak, waiting for you to truly grasp His Holy hand and look into His eyes without shame or fear. What you imagine to be blocking you is not the case, rather it is your reticence that is blocking you. You can do away with this attitude so very easily by reaching out, and stop imagining that He is not with you. He is, child."-- --

"It is so hard for me to stay awake."

"You are under a tremendous oppression."

"How do I get rid of this Mother?"

"You don't, it is a suffering. It will pass. And I say this to all my children, carry your sufferings and trials with dignity as they release graces for other souls. Your struggles are temporary and they will pass soon enough."

Repairing the Breach

November 26, 2021

Heavenly Father, we praise Your holy name and pray for Your will to be done in our lives and in this world. For Your way to rule here on earth as it does in Heaven. Thank you, Lord God, that You are in control of all things. Amen.

I had a dream early this morning, one of my brothers in the community and I were setting a table and preparing a meal for dinner outside near a beautiful backdrop of Aspen and Pine trees. You could see that my brother was reticent and unsure as to whether or not we should be having dinner with our anticipated guests. Suddenly my very good friend, Brenda showed up and with her were the parents of my brother. I sat between his Mother and my friend and brother sat next to his Father. We had such a good time, everyone was smiling, laughing and enjoying the meal and each other's company. There was such a sense of love and peace that fell over everyone at the table. Just then I look in the center of the table and saw a single, lovely white lily and next to it was an olive branch and then I woke up.

Last night at the Rosary I saw the whole room filled with lilies, it was so breathtaking and the aroma, no doubt, was Heaven scent. You could feel the purity permeating throughout the room and that a spiritual transformation was clearly taking place. I believe that is what the lily represented in the dream as well, and, as we all know, the olive branch was definitely a sign of peace. We have been praying as a community for this brother and his family, for the Lord to move upon their hearts and to reconcile them to His heart.

The Lord began, "Even though you do not see prayers being answered with your natural eyes, much is taking place in the spiritual realm and yes, Elisabeth, there is a healing and restoration starting to take place within David and his family. You see, I work on My servant's hearts first, those who are rooted more deeply into My vine and have an intimate relationship with Me. An inroad has been made here, but do not slack off of your prayers as they are very much needed to repair the breach."

I am reminded of the words in Isaiah Chapter 58, "Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in." This led to a memory I thought was long buried along with other not so pleasant experiences in my life.

My Father and I were both Realtors back in the mid-eighties. He and I shared a desk in an active Century 21 real estate office with many, many agents. I was sitting at our desk and Dad comes along and says, "Honey, this is your lucky day, here in my hand is the contact information of your next listing." I said, "I don't understand, why don't you follow up on this prospect yourself if it's so great?" He replied, "Well, I know this man, he's got a bad temper and to get his business it's going to require a feminine touch." I wasn't buying it, so I asked, "What's the catch?" Dad then proceeded to drop the man's name and phone number he had written on a small piece of paper into my hands. I looked at the paper and his phone number ended in 666. I laughed so hard, I was howling, Dad started laughing along with others around us. Soon the whole office was engulfed in what was so funny.

After I collected myself, like any good Realtor not wanting to lose a potential commission, I did the sign of the cross over the piece of paper, over the phone, asked for backup prayer and then called the prospect. Up to that point in my career, Ron was by far my most challenging client, we managed to slug through the next several months together and ended up closing over four transactions. I couldn't get over how angry and contentious he was all the time; it was very wearing on everyone. Over the years, we prayed for him hoping he would find peace and joy in this life, that the Lord would heal him of the brokenness and repair the damage and this morning, I felt that Ron, who I hadn't thought about in decades, was now experiencing peace at last.

Jesus continued, "I am calling all my people to be repairers of the breach, not only in the restoring of the disheveled state of My Church, but also in yours and others relationship with Me. You have all transgressed from My laws and have estranged yourselves from Me at one time or another, when the opposite must occur. When you have broken from My commands, you need to run to and avail yourselves to Me. This is how you will be able to stand firm when the storms hit.

"My repairers are the ones who restore the right way, who have control over themselves, their actions and words because of their deep and personal relationship with Me. You may feel like you have no influence or control over what others do, but you will be able to exercise and be an example of the gifts I have given you in the presence of others if you continue to practice self control and self denial.

This practice adds a brick and then another brick and another to the breach in the wall and it starts to close, because your relationship with Me is mending and being repaired.

"My dear ones, you all must strive to stand up to enemies of My ways and be willing to challenge wrong doing. This particular wall is not one of brick and stone, but a spiritual wall anchored by God designed to keep spiritual evil out. If you fail to protect this wall it will crumble and the forces of darkness will pour in and try to take over. Erect flaming swords of the Spirit at your gates and all entrances to protect My Church where peace dwells and righteousness flourishes." And that was the end of His message.

I was thinking, Lord please continue, tell us more about this wall when Blessed Mother began speaking, right where Jesus left off.

"My children, God supplies this spiritual wall to those who seek His Way, His Providence and His Will. The work of rebuilding our personal wall is the effort we put into seeking a strong relationship with Him, and He then provides the defenses for us. God becomes your wall. He puts a wall around His people to keep Satan at bay. Those who reject My Son or neglect a relationship with Him, break down the wall and will be bitten by the serpent.

"At times, He allows you to be delivered to Satan for the destruction of your flesh in the hope you will repent. Restoration of the wall comes through sincere and complete repentance. If you are lacking God, then you will crumble at the smallest enemy strike. My children, you all must be totally committed to restoring any neglect or offense in your relationship with Jesus, restoring God's presence as the wall is your greatest protection in these end times."

What Good Does Your Tiny Offering Do

November 26, 2021

Lord, we thank you for Your faithfulness. Thank you that we can always trust in You. You are an abundant God and out of Your great mercy You have given us so much. Amen.

Blessed Mother began speaking to Mother Clare, "I am pleased with your offerings. They will help. I wish I could demonstrate to you how every little bit helps. You would be shocked that such insignificant things can accomplish such great things in the hands of the Father. No offering is too little. Do not disparage yourself for your little offering. Give thanks to God that you have 'something' to give Him. Every gift counts beloved ones. Every little thing.

"If everyone would take us seriously situations would be resolved so much faster. But most do not have the faith to believe that their little offerings can accomplish such great things. Consider this dear ones, you are giving your gift to God who is capable of multiplying its affects according to the needs at hand.

"Look with the eyes of faith and love. Think of when your little toddler brought you a dandelion with a joyful smile and handed it to you. Whatever your mood was before, this great act of kindness has an impact on you and you are not left in the same state, rather your heart is touched and the things which seemed so very heavy on you melt away at this random act of kindness.

"Even the animals in your life bring with them consolation from Heaven. God touches their little consciousness to come to your aid when you are hurting. In fact, all of creation celebrates when you recognize a gift that was given you from their hands. Indeed, with life force comes consciousness. I wish you would look for those little gifts as your days progress, we too are fond of leaving you a little sign that we are with you."

"Thank you, Mother, some of these gifts have saved me from despair, such as the rock in the parking lot when we went for help with Ezekiel's pain from fibro."-- --

"There was great meaning in that little rock from Saint Francis, and you received it."

"Yes, that visit with the doctor gave us new life."

Mother Mary continued, "And to come full circle, your little offerings bring great comfort to these poor tormented little ones. Our Father knows exactly how to touch each one to bring them hope. I am taking extra time with this topic because I want you to be consistent in your offerings for these little souls.

"I know you will do so much more when you realize how they have been impacted. Things in the spiritual realm are far different from the physical. Intention counts for a great deal. You see this clearly in the Gospels when the poor widow gave everything, she had to live on into the offering box in the temple. To the rich, she gave nothing. To Jesus, she indeed gave her whole self to the Temple of the Lord. Oh, how God smiled on that widow!

"This is why I tell you my people, give until it hurts, even the little things. God does truly great things with the littlest of offerings. Have confidence in this when you do give. Do not disparage yourselves with thoughts such as, "that's nothing, you've done no good." Such thoughts come from the evil ones who despise you and every little thing you do for God.

"Their task is to discourage you from ever giving anything and so they whisper such lies in your ears when you give because you care, even though it is not much in your eyes, it is an honor for God to receive such innocent and good hearted offerings.-- --

"You see, you will not change from your selfishness overnight. It takes time, it is a journey into selflessness that happens gradually over time that takes you to the pinnacle of sacrifice. Satan will try to discourage the very first steps of this journey so that you never make it. Ignore his voice, and rejoice when you are able to offer something for love of God and brother."

Comfort Me With Your Worship

November 27, 2021

Lord, we praise and worship You dear God for Your blessings each day, for loving us and for providing everything we need. We love and adore You, let our hearts be a worthy and perpetual resting place for You. Amen.

"Mother I am coming to you for strength. I do not understand how I am to obey Him, the pain and fatigue, being as it is, is overpowering. I appeal to you precious Mother, to please make a way. What is on your heart dear Mother?"

She lifted my chin, "I am here Clare and I hear your prayer. I know how you suffer and how you give in to discouragement. (At this point, the Rosary Mystery spoken in the background as Our Lady was dictating to me, was when it was said, "Even in her old age, nothing is impossible for God.") Charity prompted Mary to visit Elizabeth in the hour of her need. "If Elizabeth could do it, don't you think you can too?" With God, nothing is impossible.-- --

"Exactly," Blessed Mother continued, "You are on the right track with changing the hour of the Rosary. This will give you much relief to work through the night hours. You will set aside one hour and a half. Try it. See if it works. You do need a different schedule. I know it is sweet when you all get together, but you must consider the demands of work as well. I will help all concerned."

"How have I deserved that the Mother of My Lord should come to me."

"He will not be able to stand the wicked ways of this world for much longer Clare. Do what you can sweetheart to sing to Him and bring Him the joy He is so needing. Your worship means so much to Him. Do you know how happy He has been since you repaired the breach between you?"

"No, Mother I don't."

"Suffice it to say that you are His little light that sparkles with pure love and worship and when you worship Him it brings Him joy. Oh Clare, He so needs this joy. Many of His Brides have become very tired and some have even collapsed on Him. This hour preceding mankind being plunged into the worst kind of darkness, is so very bleak to Him. When one of His Brides comes in and worships Him in Spirit and Truth, His strength is renewed and touched with holy joy.

"Very few understand the powers that go forth from a worshiping soul. This is why they were on the front lines ahead of the soldiers, this is why the wall came down, this is why the demons tremble when someone enters into real worship with all their being. They spread many lies to stop this worship, but I want to assure you that this is a most powerful weapon that both terrifies the enemy and brings joy to Our God. This joy then spills over on you, each of you and you find renewed strength in the presence of His Glory.

"You can count on renewed strength when you worship in this way. I worship with you, and so do many angels and saints join in, so do not allow the enemy to cut worship short or interfere with your communion with Him. Guard against that. During these visitations, which many in Heaven join in, the very air you breathe becomes revitalized and energized, renewing the places where you feel so much weakness. Besides beloved daughter, don't you want to bring Him joy?"

"Mother what about when I try to play simple songs and worship with them?"

"In the past you have gotten caught up in the execution or you get bored. Dear Clare, you must push in, you will hit a point where it becomes effortless and joyful. But you must press in. I will help you. Remember to ask for my help. A good half hour of solid worship will reset many things both in body and soul. Can you commit to this? I will show you the difference it will make. Besides, you make Him unspeakably happy when you do this.

"My Children, all of you have a tremendous impact on Jesus when you worship. Do you know Heaven joins in? Yes, the saints and angels dance and sing when you worship, it is so very powerful, please give it more effort and more time. And please, let yourself go. This is where the breakthrough comes, in pressing in and letting yourself go without human inhibitions. If you must, find a private place to worship. But remember these words, that you make a real difference in His world. And He will reciprocate with shining glory and great peace of heart and soul."

The Heart of a Man

Lord Jesus, please provide us with strong faith that stands firm whatever the situations are and thank you for Your limitless ways to make impossible things to happen. We place our faith and trust in You Lord to give us the strength for a renewal of our faith to love and to trust in You more each day. Amen.

During yesterday's Rosary, the question came up when the Blessed Sacrament is exposed, do we look at the Lord or can we bow our heads and close our eyes in reverence. The Lord was quick to answer our thoughts. He began, "Either posture is acceptable, but it is not My primary concern, rather it is the intentions of your heart that is most important. I search your hearts and test your minds, are they on Me and are you meditating on the holy mysteries or are you far off and giving into distractions that take you away from Me?"

Proverbs 16 came to mind, "The intentions of the heart belong to a man, but the answer of the tongue comes from the Lord. All a person's ways seem right in his own opinion, but the Lord evaluates the motives. Commit your works to the Lord, and your plans will be established. Through loyal love and truth, iniquity is appeased; through fearing the Lord one avoids evil. When a person's ways are pleasing to the Lord, He even reconciles his enemies to himself. Better to have a little with righteousness than to have abundant income without justice. A person plans his course, but the Lord directs his steps."

Jesus continued, "Elisabeth, speak of the dream I gave you this morning."

It was during the great Tribulation and Holy Spirit was directing me to yet another location for a refreshing, prayer and rest. I was also hoping for water and something to eat as it had been a few days since last I ate. Most of the land was barren except for a few patches of greenery just beginning to sprout. I looked down and saw a rise in the ground and thought, "This must be it, but how do I enter?" Holy Spirit said, "The only way to gain entry is to have a pure heart." Oh boy, I was racking my brain thinking of all the ways the Lord and Blessed Mother taught us about purifying our intentions, when it occurred to me to just say Psalm 51 out loud, and when I finished praying, a sliding door in the dirt opened and I was allowed access.

Once inside the compound, I met a man who said his name was Michael, he directed me to a small cot and instantly I fell asleep from exhaustion. Immediately I started dreaming, it was a dream within a dream. The Lord continued speaking in the dream, "When you awake, you will have My refreshing as you desired, do not let judgment enter your thoughts as you meet the people I have gathered here. For I have hand-picked these dear souls. I have chosen them to be My work men and women of varied talents and capabilities. Some of these might not be the people you would choose, but you will now pass through an experience that will lead you and give you knowledge to see that God exalts man that some would regard as inferior to themselves.

"Elisabeth, judge nothing or no one at any time, until I, Your Lord, comes and will reveal their true hearts. Many will be surprised by My estimate of character. You all will realize that I see not as man sees, I do not judge as humans judge. I read their hearts and know their motives that prompt action and I recognize and commend every faithful effort put forth from My people. I look for your earnest and sincere efforts, rather than by what you accomplish through your actions. I do not judge by your outward behavior, but by the intents and desires of the heart."

And at these words, I woke up from both dreams and that was the end of His message.

My readings have all been about Faith this week, do not doubt but believe. The gospel reading today was when Thomas doubted that the resurrected Lord had appeared to the disciples, and Jesus said, "Blessed are those who do not see, and yet believe." After praying, the next Rhema I pulled was Saint Thomas.... definitely think the Lord was driving home His point.

Dear Family, I encourage you all to pray Psalm 51 every day, for the Lord to cleanse us of all sin, iniquity and unrighteousness and to fill us with His Holy Spirit. We are all sorry that we have hopped into Satan's pit and often feel there's no way out. We do not hop out of sin's hole by our own strength. Without Jesus we can do nothing, but we must have a will and a desire to be free of sin and any bondage.

Our Lord searches the hearts and knows what the mind of the Spirit is in each of us. We who are abiding in the Vine, will take up the great commission and draw people to Christ which is the righteous motivation and works to purify our intentions. Living our life on this earth shouldn't be about trying what works can we do to make it into Heaven. It is not by works, but by faith. Our efforts and labors should be all about bringing glory to our Lord and Savior and bearing good fruit for His Kingdom.

God bless you dear Heart Dwellers!

Today, Whom Will You Serve

November 30, 2021

Lord Jesus, grant us a servant's heart and may Your life of love and service be our guide to love and serve others. Amen.

When I was young, My Father told me a true story about his cousin Dale. Growing up together, Dad and Dale were inseparable. They were very popular in their small farming town and loved to do impromptu skits and plays every day before class started. They both had a wonderful sense of humor and wouldn't hesitate to put on a performance for a few laughs from friends and fellow students. When they were in their early twenties, the Korean War broke out in the 1950's, and as cousins and best friends, they both enlisted into the army to fight in the war. They took their physicals and all tests required as part of the enlistment process. When the Sargent asked the new recruits to stand in a straight line for their assignments, Dad and Dale stood side by side in the hope that wherever they were deployed, they would be together.

The Sargent proceeded to move down the line of men, shouting out and pointing to each man, one, two, one, two, one, two. The one's were sent to Korea and the two's were sent to Germany. Dale went to Korea and Dad went to Germany, they were devastated by the separation. They hugged each other and said their quick goodbyes as they both headed into unchartered territory. When the war had ended, My Father, came back home after learning to speak fluent French and German, cooking for large groups of people and with a German woman on his arm who was seeking to come to America for a better life.

Cousin Dale's story was quite different. It was life altering, ultimately for the good. One day while on patrol, Dale's combat unit suddenly became engulfed in a rapid fire weapon exchange. The enemy had almost circled his unit, just then Dale dropped to his knees and prayed, "Lord, if you let me live through this, I will spend the rest of my life serving you." After heavy gun firing, Dale, barely alive was taken back to their camp, patched up and when he was able to be air lifted was treated at a hospital. Months later, when he finally flew back to the United States, he made good on his promise to God and completely changed his life, becoming a pastor where he preached the gospel to everyone he came across. Dale's personal testimony was so powerful, that the Lord used his experience to bring the unsaved to Him. As a result, Dale's son also became a pastor and his daughter married a pastor. Because he obeyed and made good on his commitment to serve God, the Lord bestowed on him and his family, generational blessings.

I heard the testimony of a man who was in the navy, and like Dale, turned to the Lord when it looked like there was no hope, an impossible situation and he would surely die at sea. He prayed to live and God answered his prayer and after retiring from the navy, every day this man would go down to the docks and say to people, "Excuse me, I don't mean to bother you, but if you knew for a fact that you would not live beyond tomorrow, would your final destination be Heaven or hell?" Some would tell him to buzz off, others would say Heaven and some were not sure. Those who were uncertain, he would share his testimony with and so very many people were lead to the Lord by this one man.

Jesus began, "My people, it is time to share your testimony and what I have done for you with others. I will give you the boldness and the courage to speak out about Me. This is no time to bury the gifts and talents I have given you. You are my messengers on earth and you must go forth and with wise counsel, share My love by showing others your love and compassion for them with a true and sincere heart. Visit the elderly, the sick, the poor and those who others have forgotten. Do not be complacent or indifferent in your feelings towards others, but burn with Holy Spirit fire in your heart.

"For those of you who do not know Me and shun My ways, I love you and I am coming for you. Do not wait until you are in a life or death situation, come to Me now, I will forgive you, open your heart to Me and let Me fill you with indescribable love and peace."

Are You Really a Christian or a Brother Fly

November 30, 2021

Direct us, Lord, in all our service with Your most gracious favor. Bless us with minds to think, hearts to love and hands to serve You and one another in all things. Amen.

In the early days of the Franciscan Order, when the brothers lived at Rivo Torto, there was a brother who prayed little and did no work, who never went begging, for he was ashamed, but he ate well. Considering his behavior, Blessed Saint Francis of Assisi was warned by the Holy Spirit that this brother was a sensual man. One day he said to him: "Go your way, Brother Fly, for you wish to eat the fruit of the labor of your brothers, while you remain idle in the vineyard of God. You resemble Brother Drone who gathers nothing, does no work, but eats the fruit of the activity of the working bees." He left without asking for forgiveness, for he was a sensual man.

Mother Clare began, "LORD, please speak to me."

Jesus began speaking, "You have to take control of your flock and bring them up to speed. I just gave you a Rhema that covers My grievances with some who are reluctant to join in the work. A community and a flock are like a family, and everyone in the family has work to do. That's what makes a family so special, it is a cooperative venture.-- --

"But some are still children, adults in age but children in behavior. They do not know how to give of themselves let alone give until it hurts. As a mother, you have to train them Clare. They are precious but missing a few important qualities. You were an only child, and you were selfish. You can still be selfish, but you have learned to serve. Some see themselves as being exempt from serving in the menial tasks of a day. They are not following My example. I worked very hard at My carpentry and supported My Mother. Not too many think about that when they think of our household. I worked hard in My village. People knew they could count on Me to repair their plow so they could get on with the business of farming. My Mother never worried about having something to eat because I was industrious and did well with My work.

"But here you have a mixture of people. Some are very immature and do not see that they have a part to play beyond praying. Some are older and tired from working in the world, and they see themselves as retired. But I say to you, if you have given Me your life, there is no retirement. You will always be doing something for the kingdom, even if it is only feeding the ministers or helping to clean up after them.

"In My kingdom, everyone IS their brother's keeper. No one chosen by Me to work in My kingdom is lazy. They do not last if they are not willing to give their all. Each will be rewarded for the good they did, and each will be punished for the good they failed to do. Some will be rejected because they have chosen to serve themselves and let those around them go hungry. I mean this not only about sharing food, but about sharing in the daily chores it takes to provide for everyone.

"My people, I did not come to be served, but to serve. If you have taken on the name, "Christian" you must resemble Me. I was always looking out for My Brothers and the littlest of people with real needs that they had no means of supplying for themselves. Many times, we gave out of our scanty resources to a poor mother or widow. Many times, I helped during the harvest when everyone was working, many times I took care of the needs of a poor neighbor.-- --

"The Scriptures say, "He went about doing good." Acts 10:38. There it mentions that I healed and cast out demons. Do you suppose that's all I did? There was a scene from the series the Chosen, that shows My disciples plowing a field for a poor robber. Do you think I asked My brothers to do the dirty work while I sat around and observed? Far be it from Me to give such a poor example, I worked alongside of them as one of them, not as a ruler would lord it over them, but as a humble brother just the same as them. Did I expect them to wash My feet? No, I showed the right example by washing their feet.

"Let Me put it to you plainly. If you will not serve on earth, neither will you serve in Heaven. Those who go to Heaven are servants of all men. There is no job too lowly for them to do. They are souls who have duplicated My way of life. They have learned the secret of holiness, pouring out their lives for the sake of others. Some have painted great works of art and been thought well of for their talent, but they still went to Hell. Even the ones who painted holy images for churches, some of them went to Hell. You ask, "How could that be?" It is very simple, everything they did was for themselves. They did nothing for others. They did not share their bread with widows, they did not help a poor mother who needed medication for her child, they did not help a disabled person clean their yard, mow their grass or collect their trash. The art they did was not out of Love for Me, but because they were getting paid well and showing off their talent.

"They thought of themselves as too special to stoop to help others. They felt they were better than others and helping with chores was beneath them. They were not fit for My kingdom because they only served themselves, leaving others around them with many needs. Such as these will be thrown into outer darkness where there will be weeping and wailing and grinding of teeth.

"Do not let it be said of you that you were lazy, difficult to work with, protesting with anger, quitting before the job is finished, or feigning sickness while others were working. These are not qualities of one who calls themselves by My Name, a Christian. Rather look for ways to shoulder your brother's burdens and relieve him in his necessity. When a soul comes to the community, there is a period of probation to see how well they work with others, whether they are truly praying and growing spiritually, or if they are just treading water and getting by. Are they self-sacrificing or self-serving? Many are called, few are chosen, and even fewer--respond the way they should to this great invitation. This community and flock have a proven record of authentic serving souls, the ones that avoided serving and didn't take responsibility, are no longer here. I have rejected them and sent them back into the world.

"To be a Heart Dweller and community member is a great privilege, because these are souls that are whole heartedly dedicated to Me, and as such there are many graces given to them so they can grow into the full stature of who I called them to be. I have invested in them and they have borne fruit. They have died to their own self will, and chosen instead to bear the yoke of My Will."-- --
